Simla, the 13th October 1897.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 650 dated 20th August 1897 regarding the pension application of Mr. Thornhill, late a Deputy Superintendent, 2nd class, in the Madras Revenue Survey Department. 2. It is recommended that a period of six months and twenty seven days out of a total interruption of two years five months and eleven days in Mr. Thornhill's service may be condoned so as to entitle him to an enhanced compensation pension of Rs. 170-5-8 per mensem.

3. The Government of India consider that sufficient reasons have not been given which would justify a departure in the present case from the prescribed scale of pensions laid down in the Civil Service Regulations. In the opinion of the Government of India the introduction of the graduated scale of pensions of Article 518 (in the year 1888) has removed the hardship which the provisions for condonation of deficiency of service were primarily intended to remove, and they consider that it is ordinarily undesirable to condone deficiencies in qualifying service merely with the object of granting to an officer the pension higher by

REGENT LINEN & S. & B.

$\frac{1}{60}$ th than that admissible for the number of years service he has rendered.

4. Under these circumstances they regret they are unable to recommend the grant of the concession proposed for Mr. Thornhill.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm. A. White

Secretary.
