

Pension (1897) Department.

CURRENT No. 850

From

A. Darmalinga Medakar.

See 7

Order, 1st Novr 1897 No. 838.

The petitioner will be informed that even if the period of his service in the P.W.D. prior to Novr 1845 had been included, he would, under the rules in force at the time of his retirement, have been eligible only for 1st pension, viz, Rs. 16/- already granted, and that his request for an increased pension is therefore inadmissible.

Most respected Sir,

The humble petition of Aeni Dumalinga Modilar a pensioner in the Establishment of Bellary Collection

Most humbly Sheweth

That your

as Head D 11-97

of P.W. for about 7 years having entered the Collector's Office as a Writer on salary of rupees 50 per mensem and then he served for 15 years travelling always along with the Collector for the settlement of Samatandy and other public affairs -

2. In 1866 when he was attacked with rheumatism he was under medical treatment for a year and having not obtained any benefit he applied for pension in 1869 and obtained a pension of 18 rupees per mensem in pursuance of orders rendered by him in (D. 11-97) as not obtained, as the records in Office having been destroyed, he was obliged to accept 1/3rd pension for the service done in the Office

Your Petitioner enjoys his pension
