ORDER THEREON, 2nd Novr 1897 No. 843.

Under articles 509 & 518 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations (2nd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. Samuel David

Simpson, late Supt 3rd grade & Deputy Commr. of Police, Madras City,

May in pension admissible is Rs 372-7-5 a retiring pension - p.m.

del 28.10.97. I submit that Mr Simpson's premature retirement was in itself a punishment & a practical reduction of his pension. (Vide Act 8 of 1882 flagged A in compd covr) The Govt apparently did not contemplate any further reduction. In these circumstances & having regard to the long & very efficient service of Mr Simpson, I submit that the full amount of pension admissible to the Accountant-General, with Register. May be passed

Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read the following papers

From the Commissioner of Police, Madras, No 52, dated 24th July 1897.

From the Assistant General, Madras, No I 22/199 dated 26th August 1897.

With reference to your Memorandum No 1648, dated the 6th of August 1897, enquiring whether any formal application to retire is necessary from Mr S. D. Simpson, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Madras, and whether the Government cannot direct his retirement and pass him his pension with effect from the 5th July 1897. I have the honour to report as follows:—

In accordance with the Orders of Government in para 5 of G.O. No 99 dated 21st January 1897 permitting Mr Simpson to immediately proceed on furlough and to remain on leave until the 5th July 1897, and then retire on a pension it was clearly stated in the last pay certificate granted to him by this office, that the leave could not be extended as the Government has sanctioned his retirement after the above date. Mr Simpson must be aware that he ceased to be on leave after the 5th July 1897; but he is probably under the impression that as formal application from him for permission to retire from the Service is not necessary and that his pension will be be sanctioned in the usual course with effect from the 5th July 1897.

Although articles 509 and 993 of the Civil Service Regulations contemplate that a gazetted officer should submit a formal application for pension, yet, in the circumstances of the case, the Government may, I think, if it sees fit, dispense with this formality and instruct the Commissioner of Police, Madras, as the Head of office to prepare and submit an application for pension on behalf of Mr. Simpson.

Order No. 1291, dated 3rd September 1897

The letter from the Accountant-General will be communicated to the Commissioner of Police, Madras, who should prepare and submit, without delay, an application for pension on behalf of Mr. Simpson.
