I Attention is drawn to No. 23 of the printed Memo. of Instructions from this office.

II Necessary Corrections should be made in the Service Book and in the Medical certificate respectively in respect of following points and attested.

(a) The total period of furlough availed of by the applicant from 5th January 97 to 22nd July 97 the date of his retirement amounts to 6 months and 18 days and not 6 months only as stated in the Service Book.

(b) In the statement of case on the reverse of the Medical certificate the total Sick Leave which he has had is shown as 10 months and 10 days instead of as 1 month and 10 days, the actual period of such leave.

III The marks of identification as given in the Service Book and on the 1st page of the application should be duly amended so as to agree with those recorded in the Medical Certificate

IV In the annual return for 1875 the name of the applicant is not traceable. The omission should be explained.

II Necessary corrections should be made in the Service Book and in the Medical certificate respectively in respect of following points and attested.

(a) The total period of furlough availed of by the applicant from 5 January 1897 to 22 July 1897 the date of his retirement amounts to 6 months and 18 days and not 6 months only as stated in the Service Book.

Reply

As the applicant had not taken any leave without allowance during his service, no Memorandum as required in rr 23 of the printed Memo of instructions was attached to the pension application.

RECEIVED IN THE SURVEY OFFICE ON 10 OCT. 97 MADRAS

The total period of furlough granted to the applicant from 5 January 1897 is shown as 9 months in the Service Book. But the period availed of by him amounts to only 6 months and 18 days as he was invalided from 23 July 1897. Necessary remarks that the balance leave has been cancelled have now been made in the Service Book.

The period of 10 months and 10 days sick leave shewn in the medical certificate includes also the period of 9 months furlough granted on medical certificate to the applicant from 5 January 1897. As he did not avail a portion of the leave granted to him viz 2 months and 12 days, he having been invalided from 23 July 1897, the period of 10 months and 10 days entered in the medical certificate has now been corrected to 7 months and 28 days.

III The marks of identification as given in the Service Book and on the 1st page of the application should be duly amended

Necessary amendments have been made in the marks for identification entered in the Service Book and on the 1st page of the pension application so as to agree with those recorded in the medical certificate.

IV In the annual return for 1875, the name of the applicant is not traceable. The mission should be explained.

To agree with those recorded in the medical certificate.

As the applicant was temporarily transferred to Public Works department (Temporary Establishment) from 1 July 1873 to 31 March 1875, his name was omitted in the annual returns of the Permanent Establishment for 1874 and 1875.

V A true copy of the Government order No 1663 dated 26 June 1873 relating to the applicant's transfer temporarily to the Public Works department quoted in the Service Book should be furnished for reference.
