Superintendent Police
Madras

For Orders

K. Ragaviah, late a 1st class constable of the Nellore

Police retired of his own accord after putting in a qualifying superior service of 31 yrs, 1 month and 21 days, and the Insp^r Genl. of Police granted him a retiring pension of Rs. 4 per mensem. The full amount admissible for the service. When the pension application came to the Acctt. Genl. for issue of the requisite P.P.O., the Acctt. Genl. pointed out to the Insp^r Genl. of Police that the constable could not, with reference to art. 514 C.S.R., be granted the full amount as his character and past conduct had been returned as "Indifferent".

The Acct. Genl. also pointed out to the Insp. Genl. that on a reference from him the Madras Govt. had decided to reserve to itself the power of granting reduced pensions in cases in which the applicant's character & conduct were not thoroughly satisfactory and that as Ragaviah's case came under that category, the Insp. Genl. should submit the application to Govt. for sanction. The Insp. Genl. in reply said that judging from the nature of Ragaviah's defaults which were not serious, he did not agree with the superintendent's description of his character as indifferent but considered it as fair, and that he accordingly sanctioned the full amount of pension admissible.

The Acct. Genl. now asks whether he can accept the sanction accorded by the Insp. Genl. of Police, & says he has issued orders for the payment of an admission pension of Rs 3 per m to Razgarah.

From the defaulter sheet, flagged D, it will be seen that the applicant has been fined 8 times and that he has been reduced twice. He was reduced in 1879 from 4th fr. H² Con. to 1st cl. Con. for 12 days' absence and was again reduced in 1885 from 1st to 2nd class Constable for gross negligence in not making proper enquiries to obtain evidence in 2 cases under Sec. 407. 380 I.P.C. reported while he was in charge of Haligru Station. In G.O.

that in a case where the full amount of pension admissible his unsatisfactory conduct and character, the pension ap-

The Govt considers that all cases in which any doubt exists as to whether the full amount of pension admissible under the rules should be granted should ^{under existing rules} be submitted for its orders. The present case clearly comes under the above category and ought certainly to have been submitted for orders by the I.G. of Police

2. Having regard to the past record of the recipient of the pension now in question and to the provisions of Art 574 of the C.S.R. the Govt is pleased to direct that the pension of Rs 4 per m. granted by the I.G. of Police shall be reduced to Rs 3 1/2 13.0 per m.

SIR,

With reference to the Grant of a Retiring pension of Rs 4-0-0 a month to Karanathay Ragaviah, late 1st Class Constable No. 933 of the Nellore Police, notified at page 589 of the Madras Police Gazette dated 25 September 1897, a copy of which was forwarded to me with your No. 38 dated the 30th Idem, I have the honour to state that although the Constable's total Service entitles him to a pension of Rs 4 per mensem, he cannot be granted the full amount as his character and past conduct are described on the 3rd page of the Pension application as "Indifferent" vide Article 514 of the Civil Service Regulations. On a reference from me the Madras Government has decided to reserve to itself the power of granting reduced pensions in cases in which the officer's character and conduct may not be thoroughly satisfactory. As Ragaviah's case is one that comes under that category, I request that you will be good enough to submit his application to Government herewith returned for sanction.

Pending the receipt of Government orders, I propose to defer the issue of a Permanent Pay Order for the payment of the pension sanctioned by you and I have therefore to request that very early orders on the subject may be obtained.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. I.A.O/335, dated 15 October 1897 regarding the grant of a pension of Rs. 4 per mensem to H. Ragaviah late 1st Class Constable No: 933 of Nellore Police, I have the honour to state that as the Inspector-General of Police considered the applicant's character "fair", he sanctioned to him the full amount of pension admissible under the rules.

2. Judging from the nature of defaults he has had and which are not serious, the Inspector General did not agree with the Superintendents' decision of the applicant's character and he therefore considered it "fair". But by an oversight in the office, the entry "indifferent" made in the 3rd page of the application was not corrected.
