SUBJECT.

No appeal seems to have been made by the pensioner against the sentence.

As was conveyed to the District Magistrate of the sentence was only 1 month R.I. There is no appeal.

Submitting for the orders of Government, under article 383 of the Civil Service Regulations, the case of one Gedala Ramaswamy, a police pensioner who was convicted for being a member of an unlawful assembly and for theft.

Having regard to the facts and to the nature of the offence I do not think the pension should be withdrawn in this case. It is possible the pensioner took part in the recent Order, 23rd Nov. 1897 No. 883.

looking at it may have been an ordinary dispute about land. The Dist Mag^r gives no details of the offence: but whether it was it is not I submit within the class of offence for which a pension is to be granted.

One Gedala Ramaswamy pensioner no 15884 drawing a monthly pension of Rs 3 alghernagudem was convicted by the District-Magistrate Godavari in C.C. No 4 of 1897 for being a member of an unlawful assembly and for theft. offences punishable under sections 143 and 379 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for one month. An extract from the District-Magistrate's register of summary trials is enclosed.

2. I have the honor to submit his case, for such orders as the Government may deem proper to pass, under article 383 of the Civil Service Regulations as the offence committed by the pensioner who was a Police Constable, is in my opinion, so grave as to warrant the forfeiture of his pension. Instead of
