Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture.)

Dated 3rd November 1897.

No. 8873 Mbs:

READ. the following letter from the Collector of Trichinopoly, Ref. on. Cur. No. 3178 of 97, dated 7th October 1897:-

I have the honor to report that Kavalur L. Seshagiri Rao, late second grade Head Constable No. 146 of the Trichinopoly District, on receipt of a monthly pension of Rs 9.6.2 from the 1st November 1894 under Permanent Payable Order No. 22502, was appointed by me as Head Clerk on Rs 10. in the Traffic Registration Department at Tiruairpur, started on the 8th April 1897 under made v. v. N. 148, and under, under 19th February last.

2. My Treasury Deputy Collector has objected to the payment of the pension due to him from April 1897 on the strength of the Accountant-General's Circular No. XIV dated the 19th May last; wherein it has been laid down that, the Police Superannuation Fund having been abolished in July 1871, a Police officer retiring on a pension after its abolition is not entitled to the concession laid down in Rule 577 (1) of the Civil Service Regulations.

3. Leshagiri Rao states that he was enlisted in the Police Force on the 1st September 1860 and that he had been contributing towards the Police Superannuation Fund till its abolition in 1871.

4. The charges for the registration of Road

Road Traffic are debited to Provincial Statistics under major-head 26 "Scientific and other minor departments," and the sanction of Government appears therefore necessary for re-entering the man in General Service.

5. Leshagiri Rao is an old Government servant, and his appointment is only temporary lasting for two years.

6. Under the above circumstances, I request that the Board of Revenue will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for re-employing him in service.

Resolution.

The services of a temporary clerk to register road-traffic at Turaiyur in the Trichinopoly District being required, the Collector of Trichinopoly appointed to the post, one K.L. Leshagiri Rao a pensioned pensioned Head Constable drawing a pension of Rs 9. 6. 2 per mensem.

He was promised pay at the rate of Rs 10 per mensem, and began work on April 8th 1897.

2- The appointment was in itself unobjectionable, and the pensioner probably undertook the work on lower pay than an unpensioned man of his qualifications would have accepted.

It was believed that the pensioner could be employed under article 577 (i) of the Civil Service Regulations, but the Accountant-General has held that the article does not apply to his case.

3- The registration of traffic on which the pensioner is engaged will in the ordinary course, continue for two years from April, 1897; but in the Board's opinion it is open to the local Government to sanction the pensioner's employment for one year, ^{without} without loss of pension, under article 579, of the Civil Service Regulations.

The duty is bona fide temporary and it will be arranged that so far as the pensioner is concerned - it shall not last for more than one year.

It will inflict a real hardship on the pensioner if the Collector's agreement with him is pronounced void. The Board accordingly requests that Government will be pleased to sanction the said pensioner's employment on the temporary duty referred to, from April 8th 1897 for the period of one year, under article 579 of the Civil Service Regulations. The recommendation will be submitted through the Accountant-General.

Submitted to Government.

K. L. Seshagiri Row who was granted a Retiring pension of Rs 9-6-2 per mensem under Government Order No 38 dated 12 January 1895 has been temporarily reemployed as Head Clerk on Rs 10 in the Traffic Registration Department from 8 April 1897. He has not been paid his pension since 1 April 1897.

Being a Retiring pensioner he is barred from reemployment without the sanction of Government. Should Government however see fit there is no objection to sanction being accorded to his reemployment for one year as recommended by the Board of Revenue under article 579 of Civil Service Regulations in which case he may draw his pension in addition to his pay.
