CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

Submitted to Government. The applicant serv~~ce~~ed in appointments pensionable on the superior scale up to 22d November 1896 when he was suspended for 3 months for remissness. On the 22d February 1897 he was degraded to the post of Dufterbund on a salary of Rs 7/- a month; he did not join that appointment, but took leave on loss of pay, and continued to be on that leave until 17 August 1897, when he was declared by the Civil Surgeon at Cannanore to be unfit for further service. Thus it will be seen that the suspension was not followed by re-instatement to his former post as required by exception (c) to Article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations. On enquiry the Collector, however, states that if he had not been declared unfit for further service, the applicant would have been allowed to join his appointment, at the end of his suspension. Should Government be pleased to accept the above explanation and to condone the degradation referred to above agreeably to Article 436 of the Regulations, his qualifying service in Superior grades will in all amount to 14 years 8 months and 21 days, and will entitle him to an Invalid pension not exceeding Rs 4-10-8 a month equal to 14/60th of average emoluments under Articles 485 and 518 (b) of the Regulations. The pension admissible is subject to such reduction as the Government may deem fit to make, owing to the applicant's character and past conduct, which, from the papers furnished in explanation of his suspension and degradation, do not appear to have been thoroughly satisfactory. Vide Article 514 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his reply to this office reference No. $\frac{\text{ADK}}{280}$ of the 23d October 1897 accompanying.

3. This report has been addressed to Government as the character and past conduct of the applicant as observed in the 1st paragraph above have not been satisfactory.

Proceedings of the Sub Collector of Malabar dated 16th February 1895

Read report dated 20-1-95 No 43/R from the Chirakkal Tahsildar recommending ~~that~~ his abkari Head Clerk Lakshmanan may be suspended for 3 months for carelessly preparing abkari licences.

Read also list of previous delinquencies of this clerk and his explanation.

The abkari Clerk Lakshmanan has been fined on no less than 7 occasions during the past 4 years. He is evidently careless and inattentive to his duties. He will be suspended for 3 months. The Tahsildar will see that the necessary entry is made in the service Register.

Proceedings of the Collector of Malabar
Dated 2nd February 1897.

Read the following papers.

(1) Collector's Proceedings dated 6' September 1896 F. Ref on cn^{o} $\frac{1677}{R96}$ requesting the Tahsildar of Chirakkal to report in detail about the irregularities in the work of A Lakshmanan late Abkari Head Clerk of the Chirakkal Taluk and the punishment inflicted on him on previous occasions.

(2) Chirakkal Tahsildar's report dated 27th October 1896 Ref $\frac{2936}{Rev}$ of 96.

(3) Collector's Proceedings dated 13' November 1896 F. Ref on cn^{o} $\frac{1677}{R96}$ suspending the Clerk pending further enquiry and directing him to appear before the Collector on 15' December 1896;

(4) Heard the petitioner on the 15' December 1896.

(5.) Read also Collector's Proceeding dated 16' December 96 F Ref on cn^{o} $\frac{1677}{R96}$ directing the Tahsildar of Chirakkal to make further enquiry.

(6) Chirakkal Tahsildar's report dated 9' January 1897 Ref on $\frac{15h}{Rev}$ submitting the the further report called for.

The charges against the clerk A. Lakshmanan, his explanation, the Tahsildar's remarks thereon and the Collector's finding are given in the subjoined statement.

There is therefore no doubt that A. Lakshmanan deserves dismissal. But he has 20 years service, and, if the present Tahsildar and his predecessors had properly supervised his work, A. Lakshmanan would not have been allowed to go on floundering from one mess into another for so many years; I shall therefore deal with him leniently and reduce him to the post of Dufterbund. He is clearly unfit for any more responsible appointment.

His age is by his own statement 47 years and by appearance about 47 years.

I consider Appu Lakshmanan to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind or in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of Chronic Rheumatism

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

MALABAR

THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To
THE Collector of Malabar

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the application for pension ~~gratuity~~ of Appu Lakshmanan late Dufterband, Town Magistrate's Court, Cannanore is being delayed for want of the information noted in the margin. Where possible your answer should be written underneath the several points to which your attention is drawn.

2. The enclosures and your reply should be returned with the least possible delay.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Chief Superintendent.

1. Attention is drawn to Nos. 11 and 18 of the revised printed Memo. of Instructions from this office.

If the applicant's service as Moyen Escheat Gumasta should qualify for pension under article 415 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, he would ordinarily seem also entitled to a gratuity for his inferior service which amounts to a little more than 5 years, including the period during which he was on loss of pay as Dufterband, Town Magistrate's Court, Cannanore. Similarly, if his service as License tax clerk be permanent and pensionable, it should be added to his superior service and the pension admissible for the whole should be stated. It should be explained how the applicant came to have a lien on his appointment as Escheat Gumasta immediately on the abolition of his appointment as License tax clerk on 31st March 1880. If he had a lien on the above appointments from from 1st July 1878 to 31st March 1880, the fact should be stated.

2. Attention should be drawn to No 40 of the printed Memorandum regarding the temporary appointment of Abkari Clerk held by the applicant from 22nd April 1886 to 6th November 1892. This ~~applicant~~ appointment is not traceable in the annual Returns for the years from 1887 to 92 nor his name traceable in the Taluk Establishment of Chirakkal for those years. This omission should also be explained. If he had no lien on any permanent appointment for the above period, his ~~first~~ past service will not count for pension.

3. It should be explained why in the annual Return for 1897 the applicant's name is not traceable either in the Stationary Sub-Magistrate's Court Establishment or in the Deputy Tahsildar's Office Establishment.

4. The applicant not having joined his appointment as Dufterband immediately on the expiry of the period of his suspension, forfeits all his past service under article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations. It should therefore be explained whether he would have been allowed to join his appointment on 18th August 1897 if he had not been declared unfit for further service by the Medical Officer on the preceding date.

5. The following discrepancies should be explained.

(a) In the annual Returns for 1882 and 1883, the applicant is shown to have been born in 1853; and in the Returns for '94 and '95 the date of his birth is shewn as 14th April 1862, while in the service book and in the 2nd page of the application, it is given as 14th April 1852.

(b) In the Returns for 1882 and 1883 and in that for 1896, the date of applicant's appointment is given as 1st December 1881 and 23rd April 1886 respectively, while these dates do not appear in the 2nd page of the application.

(c) In the service book the date of applicant's appointment as Abkari Head Clerk is given as 1st August 1893, while in the 2nd page of the application it is shewn as 20th May 1896.

6. The omissions opposite to Nos 3 and 4 in the 3rd page of the application should be supplied.

Reply.

(1) The delay in the submission of the application was chiefly due to the late receipt of the medical certificate and other papers in this Office. The medical certificate was received one month & seven days after the applicant's retirement.

The instructions in No 18 of the printed memo will be attended to.

The applicant's service as License-tax Clerk & Moyen Escheat Clerk does not qualify for pension the appointments being temporary.

It would appear that he reverted to the post of Moyen Escheat Clerk on the abolition of his appointment of License-tax Clerk because his appointment of License-tax Clerk was made on the understanding that on the abolition of it he should revert to his former post of Moyen Escheat Clerk.

(2) As a rule in all cases of deputation of officers holding permanent appointments on temporary duty there is an implied understanding that they are to revert to their permanent appointments, when their temporary duty ceases.

The Tahsildar of Chirakkal explains the omission to shew the applicant's name in the annual returns from 1887 to 92, as having been due to the post of Abkari Clerk being temporary. He however states that in the annual returns submitted by him

& the divisional Officer for these years the applicant's name does appear.

(3) The applicant was degraded from the post of Head clerk Stationary Magte's Court, Chirakkal to that of Dufterbund Dy Tahsildar's Office, Cannanore on the 22nd February 1897 & hence his name appears to have been omitted from the annual return of Stationary Magte's Court Chirakkal & as he did not join his appointment in the Dy Tahsildar's Office, Cannanore, his name appears to have been omitted from the annual returns of that Office also.

(4) If he had not been declared unfit for further service by the medical officer, ~~his~~ the applicant would have been allowed to join his appointment at the end of his suspension.

(5) (a) The correct date of the applicant's birth is 14th April 1852 as given in the service book and pension application. The entries in the annual returns referred to, appear to be clerical errors.

(b) The applicant was appointed acting 4th Gumastah on Rs 7½ p.m. from 20th June 1881 & as permanent 8th Gumastah from 1st December 1881. The necessary corrections have been made in the pension application.

The correct date of the applicant's appointment as temporary Abkari Clerk, appears to be 20th April 1886. The necessary corrections have now been made in the pension application.

(c) The correct date of the applicant's appointment as Abkari Head clerk is 1st August 1893. This date was omitted to be shown on the 2nd page of the application through an oversight. It appears there was only one Abkari Clerk on Rs 20 in Chirakkal up to 31st July 1893 and from 1st August 93 a second Clerk on Rs 15 was appointed & the applicant was made Hd clerk on Rs 20.

(b) The omissions have been supplied

Proceedings of the Collector of Malabar
Dated 13th November 1896.

Read again Collector's Proceedings dated 6th September 96, further Ref on Cir. 1677/R 96 calling on the Chirakkal Tahsildar to submit the explanation of the late Taluk Abkari Head Clerk, A. Lakshmanan, (now Stationary Sub-Magistrate's Head Clerk, Cannanore) for delay in issuing resale notices, in posting up the Abkari Registers and for other irregularities.

Read also Chirakkal Tahsildar's Report dated 27th October 1896, Ref 2936 D/Rev. 96 submitting the explanation called for.

The Tahsildar was particularly ~~directed~~ desired to take the late Abkari Clerk's explanation in the form of question and answer. It was of course intended that the examination should be viva voce, the object of it being to prevent the examinee from trying to escape under a cloud of words, and to drive him into a corner, if he should attempt to prevaricate.—

2— The Tahsildar, instead of obeying my orders, has given the Abkari clerk an opportunity of making a long rambling statement full of irrelevant matter in which several things are still unexplained. As the Tahsildar will not do what I want done, I must do it myself. A Lakshmanan is placed under suspension. The Joint Magistrate will please appoint a man to act. The Stationary Sub-magistrate will direct Lakshmanan to appear before me on the 15th Proximo at Calicut.
