From
V. Varadarajulu
Mudaliyar, late Clerk of the Revenue Survey Office, Brucepettah, Bellary.

The pet^r states that he presented many petitions to Gov^t some of which were transferred to the Board of Revenue. He complains that no orders have been passed on those that were not transferred to the Board.
The petitioner was given a gratuity of only Rs. (60) sixty, while he was entitled to receive a sum of Rs. (600) six hundred. He now claims the amount that has not been paid to him. He has charged interest for the same at the rate of Rs. (20) twenty a day for every rupee that is due to him. He complains that the officials of the district are doing much injustice to people, and prays that he may be authorized to superintend
