Grade Head Constable No 770 Ramthulla-
Kham of Nellore Police force. —

1. 2nd G.H.C. No. 470 Ramthullakham of Cheemakurthi.
2. Failing to proceed and investigate on House-
Breaking Case reported to him at 1 P.M. on 31-7-97.
3. The Assistant Commissioner of Salt &
Shkari when in Camp between Cheemakurthi and Ongole had his tent cut at night and articles worth over Rs 100. stolen from a box.
The Assistant Commissioner did not notice the loss in the early morning but was told of it at Cheemakurthi the same morning and sent a peon to Cheemakurthi S.H.O. He complains that the S.H.O. took no action to enquire and told the peon that the Case had not occurred in his jurisdiction and that it was not his business to enquire. The Assistant Commissioner also sent word of the Case to Ongole. He reached his tent in evening but up to 11 P.M. (when he wrote to Superintendent to complain) no Police Officer had had come to investigate. The result of this failure to take prompt action has naturally been that the case remains undetected.

The Assistant Commissioner's tent was at Sathanuthalapad which is the meeting place for the beat Constables of Ouzole, Chitakapad and Chimakurthi Stations. The case occurred and was reported on 31-7-97.

4. The evidence is quite clear that no enquiry was made on 31-7-97. The Assistant Commissioner was in his tent and states distinctly that no enquiry was made up to 11 p.m. that night.

The evidence that the case was reported to Chimakurthi S. H. O. is clear. The Peon Subbiah reported it in the morning and Mr. Simpson himself told S. H. O. at 1 p.m. about the case asking him to enquire.

The delinquent states in defence (1) that the Assistant Commissioner did not ask him to go to Sathanuthalapad. This statement I consider a direct lie (2) that he thought the Ouzole Police must be enquiring into the case because no: 863 who had gone on beat to Sathanuthalapad had not come back and he thought Ouzole Police must have kept him to assist. This is a very excuse and of no value at all. Delinquent had no reason to suppose that Ouzole Police were there and the complaint was made to him first (3) that he sent his Station writer no: 54 to enquire - now even if he did send no: 54 to enquire it would not cover his own fault in not going out himself at once as was his duty - and beyond this I do not believe that no: 54 did go out to enquire. He says himself that he did, but he admits that he did not see Mr. Simpson though he held an enquiry. He says S. H. O. sent him on high road beat at 4 p.m. with orders to make enquiries while on beat which is curious. If he had really enquired so, he must have seen Mr. Simpson who was in his tent from 5 p.m. onward. I do not believe he ever did enquire and consider his statement a lie procured by the S. H. O. to get him out of his own. This was all a most disgraceful affair. Signed officer's

Officer's tent is broken into at a village which is the daily meeting place of 3 Stations. The matter was at once reported at Cheemakurthy, yet neither did the Police of that Station enquire the whole of the day following the theft nor did any beat Constable investigate.

It is a case which shows clearly how disgracefully slack the Police of the Cuyole Division are; and it is easy to imagine that if a complaint from an officer meets with so little attention, Complaints from the ordinary inhabitant of that neighbourhood must get very little attention.

It was clearly the duty of Cheemakurthy S. A. C. to proceed at once to Santanuthalapad to enquire directly he received Mr Simpson's Complaints in morning of 31st.

5. For the reasons given above I consider that a sharp punishment is necessary. Delinquent is reduced to 3rd Cl. No. Constable permanent.
