Statement made by 280 No 203 Rengaraj of Tirumullu Ranga

I should go 10 years ago when I was officer orderly at T. adu. P. O. No. 220 Mangasakunda and Pottigadu T. adu. paraty both drunk today and arrack came to office at about 1 or 2 p.m. without uniform while it was raining.
P. O. wanted me to pour some ink in his bottle. I refused to give him ink & told him that I would give him ink the next morning. As this P. O. forced me to give him ink. Then I was pouring ink in his bottle near the Treasury room. I was insisting upon me to pour more ink. Just at the time P. O. was carrying a pot of salt water deposited in the office. When I was following him P. O. wanted him to run as I was following. I overtook him & caught hold of the pot. The P. O. seized me by the neck & squeezed me. I could not call out & I could not breathe. Before adjusting myself the P. O. ran away. I sounded my whistle As the jemadar, K. S. S. & S. S.
Jagantha Ling came. The salt was guaranteed that night, the next morning Inspector Mr. Wilson suspended them until further orders. They were dismissed afterwards. An appeal they were re-instated.
