Although I conducted the Enquiry into this Dy Tahsildar's conduct under Mr Moberly's or Mr Stones orders, I think I should state that this man had a wide reputation in the District as a bribe taker & libertine. He was at Vedaraniam a rather inaccessible corner of the district in a Dy Collector Divn for years & was commonly known as the Vedaraniam tiger. From the notes recorded in the confidential cover it will be seen that it was considered proved that he was a liar & untrustworthy but that the evidence of corruption & ~~undue~~ influence abuse of official powers did not amount to proof but only to a strong suspicion.

If the medical certificate granted by an apothecary (Lapenais) temporary D.M. & S.O is accepted I submit a considerable reduction in his pension shd be made. He was reduced in Augt 97 & retired Oct 97 so the reduction did not materially affect the calculation of the maximum pension admissible.

Granting that ~~he~~ a ~~professor~~ Taluk Hd. acct. was all he was ever fit for I submit he shd not get a greater pension than ½ the pay of a Taluk Hd acct viz Rs 25.

H.M.

It was in this case that the Hon. Sir H. Bliss suggested dismissal as the only appropriate mode of disposing of him. If he gets now a pension of R 25 or even R 20, on which he can live with ease if not in great comfort, he will be well recompensed

21/12/98

I remember the case. It was a bad one. His pension must be reduced, but I think he may have R 25

TANJORE.

To

The Collector,
Tanjore District.

Most Honoured Sir,

I most respectfully beg leave to state that I have earned Rs 46 + odd as my pension being calculated on my last 5 years' emoluments according to rules in force.

I had put in nearly 28 years good and eligible service up to the date on which I was placed under suspension ie the 23rd Sepr. 1896 and the period of suspension lasted nearly a year. Had it not been for this misfortune I would have earned Rs 50 pension.

For the trivial charges brought against me I had the misfortune of meeting with double punishment viz the suspension for nearly a year entailing a loss of Rs 1200 and reduction to a post carrying half my pay. There was no blot on my character prior to the recent charges trumped up by my enemies but on the other hand your honour will find that several Collectors and Deputy Collectors have certified to my good character.

As I am finally retiring from service and as I have to depend mainly on the amount of pension given to me for my support and that of my large family I humbly crave your honour's mercy and generosity to take pity on my poor condition and to allow me a concession by adopting the period of my suspension as that of service for the purpose of calculation so that my pension may not fall short of Rs 50 per month.

I beg to remain

Taking all these things into Consideration, I am of opinion that M.R.Ry A. Ramasami Aiyar is unfit to hold the post of Deputy Tahsildar or of Sub Magistrate, and I accordingly recommend his removal from the post he now holds. If this recommendation meets with approval, it will be necessary to reduce him. I would be willing to see him reduced to a post of Rs 70 or Unless therefore he can be provided with a post in some other District, I recommend that he be reduced to the post of Taluk Head Accountant.
