3rd class Constable Nagoo No 307 of Mudukulathur Station K Division is awarded two Black marks for negligent escape.

Minute on above.

P. Devasagayam Pillai Police Inspector K Division reports in his diary dated 9th February 82 that Constables Nos 478 and 307 were directed to escort two prisoners from Mudukulathur Sub Jail to Perungaramai village for trial on the 6th Instant as the Magistrate did not visit the hamlet on the day fixed so the Constables detained the prisoners in a private house and one of the prisoners escaped during the night.

I learn from the Inspector's report dated 12th February 1882 that the prisoner was recaptured on the following day (i.e 7th February 82) and charged, the Magistrate sentenced the prisoner to four months rigorous imprisonment under Section 224 I. P. C.

The Constables state in defence that they were ordered to await the Magistrate's arrival at Parrancurram village; here they failed to use discretion finding the Magistrate did not arrive by 4 P.M they should have proceeded to the nearest Police Station namely Hiramam a distance of four miles (vide Inspector's diary dated 12th February 1882)

The Constables next throw blame on the Village Magistrate for refusing to order the village Police to render assistance.

Sub Division Defaulter Order No 242

1st class Constable no 478 Ganapathia Pillai is reduced to 2nd class Constable for forging an attakshi on 12th October 1893 which purported to have been written by Muthukaruppan ambalam V. M. of Taginipetty.

In October last, this Constable was deputed by his Station House Officer 4th Grade Head Constable no 43 Subba Singh to search for and arrest one Muthian ambalam.

The Constable stayed away on this duty from 15th September 1893 to 25th October 93 (a period of one month and 10 days) but furnished his Station House Officer with reports of his work according to orders. On the return of the Constable, the Station House Officer suspecting that the attakshies from some of the V. M. attakshies showing that the Constable had searched in the various villages for Muthian ambalam, made enquiries and on questioning the V. M. of Taginipetty, Muthukaruppan ambalam found that this V. M. denied ever having signed an attakshi for no 478. No 478 however has produced an attakshi which purports to have been given by this V. M. (vide enclosures.)

In defence no 478 states that he produced no attakshi from the V. M. of Taginipetty.
The enclosed attakshi is thus admitted by all parties to be forgery. As the attakshi was produced by no 478, there can be no doubt of his guilt.

As this is a most serious offence showing that for probably most of the period of 6 weeks the Constable was away, he was on
