Enclosure

Most honored Sir

I beg to bring the following few lines to Your honors kind consideration and favorable disposal.

I joined the late Madras Irrigation and canal Company in 1860 in my 18th year and served as a draughtsman on No 50 for 22 years till July 82, when the Kurnool Cudolapah canal was handed over to the Government. ~~It~~ was given an order No 519. by the then Executive Engineer of Kurnool canal ¹⁴⁻¹²⁻⁸² ~~Dr.~~ (which I herein Enclose for your honors kind perusal) to the effect that I was Exempted from Examination and other rules of Government, that my Services were transferred to Gt. and that I should join the new Gt. appointment without break of Service. I accordingly joined my new appointment on the very date on which I was relieved. I entered the Gt. Service as a draughtsman on No 40, which was afterwards reduced to 20 to 30 on the ^{plea} ~~basis~~ of my being a third class draughtsman.
In this capacity I served from 1st January 1883 to 12th December 1897, for a period of about 15 years but owing to my ~~then~~ attaining my fifty fifth year I have been ordered to retire without due consideration

I enclose for favorable consideration.

The applicant has 22 years service in
the Canal Company &

15 years service in
force of the 22 years service under this

Company cannot be allowed to count
towards pension.

The 1st deduction
for joining for service
after the age of 30

years might be dispensed with.

Yours faithfully
25/1/98

2. The applicant
entered the service
after he attained the age of 40 years, and under C. S. R. article 521 (a), the pension
admissible to him under ordinary rules has to be reduced by one-fourth
for every year by which his age at the commencement of his
qualifying service
exceeds 30 years. The express in the present case is 10 years and the pension claimable is the pension admissible under rules minus $\frac{10}{40}$ th

The pension admissible
for a service of 14
years is $7.00
but this has to be reduced to $\frac{3}{4}$ of \$7.00 or \$5.25.

3. The Executive Engineer recommends that the applicant may be allowed his full pension viz $7.00 per mensem. Considering that the man had 22
years service in the Muzoal Canal before
it was taken over by Govt. some concession
may perhaps be allowed
but it seems extremely doubtful with reference to C. S. R 1005 (a) whether this may be allowed without reference to the Secretary of State.
