Reduced to 1st C.C. for having been met by his Inspector on beat without trousers and belt.
He is an extremely careless man. He was promoted as Head Constable in March 1873. He has been punished 5 times in the last 12 months and I found his station in bad order when I inspected it in August last.
He was just going to put on his trousers when Inspector saw him. He had not his belt with him even.

Swamy of Bellare Police force

This Head Constable was awarded one Black mark on 23.7.90 and another on 12.8.90 when he was warned for reduction under S.O. 74. He has now been awarded a 3d Black for neglecting to make personal inquiry into crime No ¹⁵/₁₈₉₀ of his station, Tadiaripally, Bodily Division and for deputing his subordinates to prosecute the same case. Head Constable's defence is that on the 1st and 2d July/90 (the case occurred on the 1st July) he was suffering from fever, on the 3d he went to enquire into an accidental death, on the 3d night he went to enquire into crime No 15, but the inquiry had already been completed, the accused having gone to Bodily, he sent for and arrested him on the 8th at his station and charged ^{the} accused, but could not go and prosecute the case as his Inspector had sent him an order to make inquiries into a theft which occurred in Bodily. Constable No 288 of Tadiaripally bears witness ^{to the fact} that station house officer, Head Constable 76 was not ill on the first & 2d and that Head Constable told him to enter him as ill in Duty Roster, which he (Constable) refused to do. Inspector B. Parnaswamy (1st class) states he learnt from private inquiry that Head Constable was not ill on the first and 2d. Inspector also states that the order referred to, by Head Constable was sent him on the 20th June and not 8th July as stated by him. The duty roster shows that this Head Constable was on duty, making inquiries into the theft case of Soddy for 6 days in June, but not in July, in which month his time was occupied between station watch, station sick and beats, so that he had had actually no exercise for not enquiring into case no. 15 and conducting the prosecution.

I recommend his reduction to 3d. grade. He has had a personal hearing.
