Indifferent is the description of his conduct & character. But there is nothing definite against the man except that he was suspended for a month for repeated absence without leave. A reduction of (one) Re wd seem sufficient.

Proceedings of the Dy Collector of Madras dated 10th July 1894:

Peon Jaganatha Row of the stamping weights and measures department has been most irregular in his attendance. He has been repeatedly warned, but without any effect. He has been often in the habit of staying away and ~ subsequently applying for leave. ~ Although on such occasions the period of absence has been treated as leave on loss of pay, he has not cared. On the 20th March last I had a memo prepared showing that Jaganatha Row had stayed away (on 3 occasions) 3 days on half pay and (on 13 occasions) for 70 days without pay. This was in the period 11-5-93 to 11-3-94 — ten months. I then warned him not to stay away without leave. His signature is to be found on the order in ~ token of having heard it read and explained to him. Subsequently on 20th April he was granted two days leave on half pay to attend a marriage. He stayed away till 15th May. He pleaded illness. I directed him to rejoin. He applied for further leave. This was refused

He was absent till 31st May. Then on the intercession of the Tahsildar I treated the absence as leave on loss of pay and allowed him to rejoin on 3rd June. He again stayed away on on 23rd June. He appears today and says he went to a marriage and there heard his family at Bangalore were ill and that he went to Bangalore.

I have borne with the man very patiently but he seems not to care for reprimands. I now direct that he be suspended for one month viz 0th July to 9th August inclusive. He is urther warned that if he does not ttend office more regularly in future e will be dismissed.

Attention is drawn to No. 23 of the revised printed Memo. of Instructions from this office.

The Establishment of stamping weights and measures in which the applicant was employed is not traceable in the annual Returns on record in this office up to 1889. The omission should be explained.

Ref No 2909 Encl 8.

Reference is solicited to the correspondence ending with G.O. No: 1395, Revision, dated 21st November 1889, from which it will be seen that the Stamping Establishment in this District had previously been erroneously regarded as temporary and non-pensionable.

362/ Read Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, dated 15th December 1897, No. A.D.J/419, on application of Collector of Madras, dated 6th October 1897 for an Invalid gratuity on behalf of Lickum Jagannada Rau, Late Peon, stamping weights and Measures Department, Madras Deputy Collector's office.

Reference thereon dated 19th January 1898.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. In para 1 of his report the Accountant-General remarks: "Should Government be pleased to accept the Medical Certificate countersigned by the Surgeon-General one month and nine days after the applicant ceased to do duty, qualifying service in inferior grades will be duly proved for 15 years 2 months and 20 days". The Accountant-General has in previous cases quoted Article 991 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations as the authority for such a remark. The article runs as follows:-

"If the application is for an Invalid pension, and the applicant is less than 60 years old the requisite Medical Certificate should be attached to the application. But if omission has been made in this respect the Local Government may accept a Certificate bearing a later date".

This proviso, it will be seen, refers to cases in which no certificate accompanies the pension application and not to cases in which the Certificate is attached to the application but happens to bear a date subsequent to that on which the applicant ceased to do duty. Some delay in obtaining a certificate is in most cases inevitable, as the applicant has to appear before a Medical officer and has for that purpose to travel to the head-quarters of the District; or he may be placed by the Medical Officer under observation before a Certificate is given.

3. In the circumstances stated above the Board doubts whether any special sanction is necessary for accepting Medical Certificates in cases like the present and accordingly submits the point for the orders of Government through the Accountant-General.

Submitted to Government.

The Board of Revenue in holding that the proviso to Article 991 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations refers to cases in which no Medical certificate accompanies the pension application and not to cases in which the certificate is attached to the application, but happens to bear a date subsequent to that on which the applicant ceased to do duty, appear to have overlooked the Government of India Resolution, Financial Department No 1158 of 18th June 1870 which authorizes Local Governments to deal with pension applications in which Medical certificates of in-capacity for further work are submitted some time after the applicants have ceased to be employed under Government. Before the issue of the above resolution it was necessary to obtain the sanction of the the Government of India to the grant of invalid pensions when the Medical Certificate bore a date subsequent to that of the applicant's actual retirement from Government service.

2. I would also observe that the grant of Medical certificates has been dealt with in Rule XIII Part II of the rules sanctioned in Government Order No 530 Pension, dated 14th July 1897 and that the delay mentioned by the Board need not occur if the rule is strictly observed.
