4th Grade Head constable 343 Shaik Hussein is dismissed for having hushed up 11 cases of Dacoity and failing to register or enquire into 3 more Similar Cases.

Minute

4th Grade Head Constable No 343 was in charge of Buttayagudem station which is almost in the centre of the country where there was a Serious outbreak of dacoity in July due to the great scarcity prevailing at the time and although he was perfectly well aware of the Commission of these offences he neglected to regist them (in all 14) or make any enquiries into them.

In 3 Crimes viz Vedantapuram, Muppenavarigudem and Mulagalamp a report in due form sent to him, in the remaining 11 cases he knew about them but wilfully neglected to take any notice of them, and it ca only be presumed that he hushe them up thinking to save himsel trouble and that in the general Confusion they would never come to light

187

(II) In his defence 4th Grade Head Constable No 343 states, that as regards the 11 cases although no report was made to him he knew all about them but was in such a state of fright that he did not register them or take any steps.

As for the Vedantapuram case. he pleads that he was engaged in guarding the station against possible invasion so was unable to take it up and as regards the other two cases he states that he did not know what to do in such cases.

(III) This defence can not possibly be accepted on the face of it; it is obvious that he is unfit for any appointment in the Police, when he states that he was unable to take any steps because he was so frightened as for his failure to take up the 3 specified cases; because he did not know what to do with them, this is unworthy of consideration, the preliminary treatment of all Police cases is precisely the same however grave they may be.

The country round Buttayagudem at this time was in a serious state of unrest, and had it not been for the then Superintendent's almost entirely unaided efforts it is difficult to say where or how the looting would have ended, and his task was rendered additionally difficult by this Head Constable's action in hushing up these cases.

Even after the cases were registered and put up before the magistrates Head Constable No 343 put every obstruction in his power to the obtaining of witnesses and evidence.

There can be no doubt that No 343 did hush up these 14 cases and that he has been guilty of the grossest misconduct and had it not been that he is a man of some service I should have ordered his prosecution but as it is I think dismissal will be sufficient punishment.

He had a personal hearing and called no witnesses.

Order on Appeal petition No 99 of 1897

(1) Read appeal petition dated 5th November 1897 of Late 4th grade Head Constable No 343 Shaik Hussain of the Godavari District appealing against his dismissal by the Superintendent of Police Godavari District.

(2) Read Copy of minute and extract from the defaulters register of 22. 10. 97

The appellant has without doubt been guilty of very serious neglect of duty but it is hardly reasonable to suppose that 8
a man of his service and 6
experience would have wilfully
(8) 7
hushed up a number of docoities, to save himself the trouble of investigating them, at the time the dacoities dacoities were committed his division was in a very disturbed State and it is not improbable that in the general confusion he lost his head and acted as he would

would not have done in ordinary times, taking all the circumstances into consideration and bearing in mind the appellant's long service and previous good conduct the undersigned considers that the appellant has been too severely dealt with by his Superintendent, instead of being dismissed the appellant will be reduced to 1st class Constable and if he is entitled to optional retirement he should be directed to submit his application for pension
