Treasury Defalcations

Ryali Chentsal Row, English Accountant, Treasury Department on Rs 35 and acting Naib Tahsildar of Bhadrachalam on Rs 60.

This person who was an accountant on Rs 35 in July 1887 and April and October 1888 and June and July 1889 wrote out the Registers of Revenue Deposits relating to cases 26, 27, 28, 32, and 33 and the Balance and Repayment Registers connected with Cases 34 and 35 and statements of adjustments for April and October 1888 relating to cases 32 and 33.

The transaction relating to case 27 was a true one. In cases 26 and 28 the entries in the Registers of receipt and repayment were false and intended only to defraud Government. Chentsal Row tried to show that the credits to deposits in these cases were made on the strength of the Taluk Registers. These Registers having been on examination found to contain no entries to correspond, Chentsal Row then stated that the accountant in charge of the D. C. B. viz N. Hanumantha Row must have given him some alteration memoranda.

As regards case 32, he admits having written the receipt and repayment items under reference and says that he must have done so in accordance with some adjustment memo given by N. Hanumantha Row, but points out that "the figure 3 of "364. 8. 4" and 3 of "375. 8. 4" are not his. He wrote the adjustment memorandum relating to this case having obtained the particulars from N. was at the time Cashkeeper, continued to have control over the D. C. B and Deposits work for about an year afterwards.

In regard to Case 33, the entry in the Register of Repayments is in his hand except the figures in the two columns relating to "number" and "amount of original deposit" — viz "124" & "10086-8--". He said at first in regard to these entries that he must have made them from the Deposit Receipts Register. But finding no credit in the Receipt Register he said he recollected that Hanumantha Row showed him a supplemental Register containing item 34½ and that he (Chentsal Row) based on it his entry in the Repayment Register. The office copy of the Supplemental Register is not forthcoming but the one sent to the Accountant General has been obtained and it supports Chentsal Row's statement.

The statement of adjustments for October 1888 relating to this case is also in Chentsal Row's hand but the last two columns "Head of Account to which transferred" and "Item in which the transferred amount has been included", which are the material portions of the statement, were filled in by Hanumantha Row, which shows, as observed in reference to the analogous case 20, that Hanumantha Row kept the information to himself without taking any one into confidence.

Chentsal Row explains that N. Hanumantha Row was looked up to and trusted by the Treasury Deputy Collector and others as a great accountant and that he like others did what he said.

Chentsal Row's explanation is generally not such as might be expected from an officer of his service and position. But he is a person of very poor intellect and poorer memory and it is perhaps owing to this reason that, at this distance of time, he is unable to give any clear explanation of his conduct. I do not consider that it is proved that he had any guilty knowledge of Hanumantha Row's frauds. It is, however, clear that he is utterly unfit for his present responsible position. He will revert to his permanent post and go at once for training in survey and will then be posted as second class Revenue Inspector on the occurrence of the first vacancy.

The extraordinary blunders of the acting clerk M. V. Krishnayyengar (since dismissed) have confused this case so much that it was difficult to elucidate it. The Tahsildar and Taluk Magistrate also helped to obscure it by giving a second copy after so long an interval – when the delay was so harmful – without noting the fact on the copy given and without reporting it at once.

2. The truth is however now abundantly clear viz that the judgment sent with the list of 22nd February 1893 (No 18) was (as it purported to be) the copy of the judgment in C. C. No $\frac{2}{1893}$ and that Chentsal Row's explanations are false. This is clearly shown:–

1st by the fact, that on an examination of the records, there is no other proof; it could have been.

2nd by the fact that a judgment written by the Naib Tahsildar in a similar case against the same accused (3 of 93 on his file) bears the most striking resemblance in its wording to the judgment in 2 of 1893 which if the list is correct he then had by him having received it from the Taluk Magistrate. It is quite impossible that this could be an accidental similarity. The only alternative explanation would be that the Naib Tahsildar had access to the original judgment of the Taluk Magistrate. This however he does not pretend and merely denies that there is any similarity. This is fatal

3rd by the statement of the Clerk K. Venkatanarasappa who says that he missed this copy (2 of 1893) when the list already referred to came to him and asked the Naib Tahsildar for it who then told him that he had the copy with him. This statement would be of no value by itself but as corroborated by the other 2 matters set out above and explaining them it assists in clearing up the matter.

3. It must be concluded that when the list of papers and the papers came from camp from the Tahsildar the Naib Tahsildar kept this copy to save him trouble in writing his own judgment. As there is no apparent reason for his wishing to injure either the Tahsildar or the prisoner, he probably forgot all about it and mislaid it among his own private papers. So far there would be nothing to entail more than a severe reprimand.

4. But unfortunately for him, instead of confessing the facts, he in his explanation of 6th July 1893 told a series of falsehoods, trusting to the alterations and blunders of the acting Clerk M.V. Krishnayyengar to support them and accused the Tahsildar of making the accusation against him in order to cover his own faults.

5. This conduct is most reprehensible and must be severely punished. R. Chentsal Row is therefore suspended for one year

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for pension on behalf of Ryali Chentsal Row late Revenue Inspector, Bhimavaram Taluk together with the following documents:

1 Service Register
1 Last Pay Certificate
1 Medical certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon, Cocanada
1 Memorandum showing how average Emoluments are calculated

2. The applicant's total service is years 27 months 7 and days 19 of which years 25 months 7 and days 11 is qualifying and the rest non-qualifying. He is, therefore, entitled, under Articles 485 and 518(+) of the Civil Service Regulations to an Invalid pension of Rs 18-10-4.

3. The applicant was suspended (from 14-12-93 to 13-12-94) for one year for misrepresenting facts in connection with his omission to deliver, while he was Naib Tahsildar of Bhadrachalam, a copy of the Taluk Magistrate's judgment to a prisoner in Jail. A copy of the Proceedings Dis No 49/Ver of 1893 d/ 4-11-93 of the District magistrate on the subject is under rule XVI (43), enclosed for reference.

4. The applicant is also one of the minor officials referred to in para 18 of Mr. Higgins' letter No. C-2 d/ 16th January 93 printed in B.P no 287, Land Revenue, d/ 30th May 1893 but he seems to have been made use of by N. Hanumanta Rau not because he found in him a desire to co-operate with him but because he found him to be stupid and incapable of understanding his tricks. A copy of the Proceedings issued by Mr. Higgins in connection with this man is enclosed for perusal. The punishment at the time inflicted being in my opinion sufficient in the case of both offences, I do not now propose any reduction in his pension.

obj. 1. The delay in the submission of the pension application was, as explained in the remark made against entry no 18 on page 1 of the application, due to the time occupied in getting the information from the Taluk office.

Particulars required under art. 487(b) need not be furnished as the Certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon clearly shows that the applicant was permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind, in consequence of a specific disease i.e malarial fever. It is presumed that what is required is only the statement referred to in clause (a) of art 487 of C.S.R which requires that a succinct statement of the medical case and of the treatment adopted should if possible be appended. This statement (the medical case of the applicant) is now forwarded.

It is not understood why the Collector's attention is drawn to rule 28 as Mr. J. Lychlander who granted the certificate to the applicant is the acting Civil Surgeon of Cocanada.

28-9-1892 to 30-9-92 :- The applicant was during this period acting for Goteti Atchuta-Ramiah who was permanent Naib Tahsildar of Bhadrachelam and acting Vernacular clerk on Rs 60 in the Godavary Collectorate and who was appointed as Dy Tahsildar of Rutapadu Division; he was relieved in the Collector's office on the afternoon of the 27th and was in transit till the 30th

20-10-92 to 28-10-92 :- The applicant was concerned in the arrangement of M.R.Ry Jayanti Ramayya Pantulugar, acting during this period as Dy Collector, Anantapur

29-10-92 to 31-10-92 :- G. Atchuta Ramiah, Permanent Naib Tahsildar of Bhadrachelam was confirmed as Vernacular clerk on Rs 60 in the Collectorate on 29-10-92 and the post of Naib Tahsildar in which the applicant was acting was vacant from that date.

obj 2. There is nothing on record to show why the applicant was appointed acting and not sub protem except during the following periods when he held his post sub protem :- 1-9-92 to 27-9-92, 1-10-92 to 19-10-92 and 1-11-92 to 28-2-93.

obj 3. The correct date of the applicant's birth is 1-4-1847 as noted in the service Register and in the pension application while the dates noted in the Annual Returns for 78, 79, 82 and in those from 1894 to 1897 are not correct. The statement of the applicant in support of this is enclosed.
