Note

As regards C. S. Kristnaiyah's service in my time, I can confidently say he was honest. At times he was a little indiscrete and was wanting tact in management. Apparently the recent death of his wife was the cause of some mistakes and irregularity in the concluding portion of his career which are fresh in the Inspector-General's memory.

Proceedings of the Inspector-General.

Read letter from the Registrar of Chingleput dated 11th March 1894 No. 478.

J. No. 941 of 10th April 1895, Pattambi.

In the above letter the District Registrar of Chingleput reports the result of the enquiry conducted by him into a complaint preferred by Guruvappa Naidu, Village Munsiff of Vannipakam in the Ponneri taluk against C. S. Kistnaiyya the Sub Registrar of Ponneri.

2. The complaint is to the following effect; The Sub Regr has borrowed the carriage and pony of the complainant for a day to go to Madras but did not return them for some days. The complainant thereupon sent his gumastah and bandyman to bring the carriage and pony back but they returned and stated that the Sub Registrar would not deliver them up alleging that they were got from the Shrotriemdar of Adappambedu and could be returned to the Shrotriemdar alone. The complainant then got the Shrotriemdar to send ~~for~~ a letter to the Sub Registrar and sent a registered letter himself demanding the delivery of the carriage and Pony. These letters were also unheeded. It was only after a month seeing that the complainant had submitted a petition to the Inspector General that the Sub Registrar sent the carriage and pony to the Shrotriemdar.

3. The evidence of the two witnesses produced by the complainant makes it clear that the Sub Registrar's peon got the carriage and pony for the Sub Registrar's use from the complainant. The letter of ~~the~~ the Shrotriemdar also shows that the carriage and pony belonged to the complainant.

4. The Sub Registrar in explanation of his conduct in the matter has made three different statements. When the petition of complaint was sent to him for explanation he totally denied the allegations made therein. Subsequently when the District Registrar commenced the enquiry he gave a statement to the effect that he sent his peon to fetch a carriage as he wanted to send his people to Madras and that the peon brought a carriage and told him that it was obtained at Vannipakam, the complainant's village. In his final explanation the Sub Registrar states that the carriage was obtained not from the complainant but from the Shrotriemdar of Adappanchedu, that as the Shrotriemdar was absent from his village he had to detain the carriage and pony till his return. The Sub Registrar's peon deposes that he went to the Shrotriemdar for a carriage that he gave a letter to the complainant who let him have his carriage.

5. Whether the carriage was obtained from the complainant directly or through the Shrotriemdar, it is clear that the Sub Registrar has been guilty of serious misconduct in detaining the carriage for a whole month without paying hire for it. There could have been no difficulty in ascertaining who was the owner of the carriage even supposing that the Sub Registrar's alleged ignorance were real. That the plea that the carriage was detained because the Shrotriemdar was absent is false and frivolous is also clear from the letter dated 9th November 1893 of the Shrotriemdar filed in the enquiry. The Sub Registrar has aggravated his offence by giving a disingenious and untrue explanation.

6. The Inspector-General directs that the Sub Registrar be suspended for gross misconduct for one month and transferred to another station.
