Sir,

I beg to submit the following lines by your honors and kind consideration and request that favorable orders may be passed on the same.

I have been entertained as a peon in the Department in the year 1866 and was promoted to Tide waiters post in 1877. I have served the Government for about 30 years, and now I am quite unwell to get through the work as I am more than 55 years old. I am at present a Tide Waiter Rs 12/-. I am now on Privilege leave for one month from 1st November 1897 on account of my having been injured very much by dog bite.

In conclusion, I beg to state that I am quite willing to retire from the employment now.
In so doing, I wish that I may be recommended to the Government for Pension for my Superior Service and for donation for inferior service. I may refer a previous case when similar concession was given in 1893 and 1895 (i.e) in the case of one Karayanasami Naidu, and Jagannatha Moodali Tide waiters on the same rank.

For which act of kindness I am in duty herewith a copy of the late J. Ratnam's application as desired by you. He was not permitted to retire at once as he had not asked to cancel the un-

From

F. C. Harrison Esq.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Secretary to the Commissioners of Salt, abkari & Separate Revenue.

SIR,

With reference to the Board's proceedings No. 5490 dated the 11 of December '97, referring some for remarks letter No. 8239 G. dated the 6th Decr, from the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, regarding the claim to gratuity and pension of the late Triplicane Ratnam, a Tidewaiter of his office, I have the honour to make the following observations. I gather from the papers, that, on the 1st November 97 J. Ratnam had served in Superior and Inferior grades for a period of upwards of 31 years and being over 55 years of age, was eligible for retirement on a pension either under article 508 or 509 of the Civil Service Regulations. He was granted privilege leave for one month with effect from the above date, and although he was due in office on the 1st December '97, he did

du
not return to duty and died on the following day.
From a subsequent communication from the Collector of Sea Customs, it appears that while on privilege leave T. Ratnam submitted an application to him in which he stated as follows:
"I have served the Government for about 30 years and now I am quite unwell to get through the work as I am more than 55 years old. I am quite willing to retire from the employment now.
In so doing I wish that I may be recommended
to the Government for pension for my superior service and for donation for inferior service"

To
On receipt of the letter, the Collector, if he saw no objection, should have permitted the applicant to retire from the service, but he states that he did not do so, because the applicant had not asked to cancel the unexpired portion of his leave, and that his pension papers were being prepared in anticipation of the applicant's retiring after rejoining his appointment. The Collector's omission in this respect should not prejudice the applicant's claim to pension and in the circumstances I think that the case falls under article 1043 and not under article 1044 of the Civil Service Regulations. The applicant may therefore be granted the retiring allowance admissible to him under the rules.

SIR,

With reference to your letter dated 15th March 1898, No. S.A.E. 602, I have the honor to state that, on a reference to the Acquittance roll of April 1877, it is observed that for April 1877, in the April Return for 1880, is a mistake for 17th April 1877, as the applicant was promoted to Rs 12 on the latter date (vide April Returns for 1881 and 1882). As the Customs Establishment was revised in the year 1882, 1st July 1882, is shown as the date of first appointment in the April Returns from 1883, though the applicant continued to draw Rs 12 from 17th April 1877.

2. The delay in the submission of this application is partly due to

To the non-cancellation of the unexpired portion of the leave granted to the applicant, as he did not apply for the same, and to the fact that I was awaiting the orders of
