DEPUTY 304
3 MAR. 1898

Proceedings of the Head Assistant Collector of Tanjore dated 2nd January 1889

On the 17th December 1888 I arrived at the Alathur Land customs chouki for the purpose of inspecting it at 11. 30 a. m and found that the chouki was locked up and neither the Amin nor his peon was present. The peon arrived in about 10 minutes from the village, when news of my arrival had spread but the Amin did not turn up for half an hour

From inquiries I made I learnt that he had left the chouki at 8. o'clock that morning

His explanation of the desertion of the place was that both himself and the peon under his orders had gone to the village to bring a workman to commence sanctioned repairs to the chouki building An explanation which I don't blame but which if accepted does not help the Amin for it is tantamount to an admissio that he knowingly left the chouki deserted during office hours.

I found other signs of carelessness and inattention to duty in the office. The disbursement of the peon's pay for December which was made, so the amin and peon agreed in saying, on 7th (or 8th) December, was not posted in the chitta though an entry was duly made for the amin's pay. Correspondence is pasted in file books, but though only four or five letters per month are received or despatched none had been pasted in the file books since August, but all papers subsequently received were lying loose and irregularly arranged in the books.

From these facts it is clear that the amin is thoroughly lazy and neglectful of his work.

He was suspended once for three months in Proceedings No 10 dated 8th February 1887 for leaving his station without permission, and the Head Assistant Collector then pointed out the serious results of such dereliction of duty, namely that handymen are detained till the amin returns, or the trade registers are not complete.

These choukis are in such inaccessible situations that it is a difficult matter to detect such faults and remissness, which can be discovered only when an inspection visit is paid. I think it necessary therefore to make an example now that this fault, serious enough in itself, is established and I accordingly order that the amin be suspended from his office for six (6) months from the date of relief.

Proceedings of the Head Assistant Collector of Tanjore dated 8th February 1887

Read statement made by the undermentioned persons:—

1. Sama Row. amin Mathur, chouki
2. T. Ramasami Iyengar Head Clerk Head Assistant Collectors Office Negapatam
3. Ramasami Naik, Revenue peon attached to the Mathur chouki
4. Rengasami Constable No 1088.
5. Narasima Naidu Head Constable

Order

Ramasami Iyengar Head Clerk brought to the notice of the undersigned that the amin Sama Row was not found in the chouki on the evening of the 6th instant. The amin admits his absence without leave, but pleads that he was obliged to go suddenly to condole the death of a Nazadu in Aordakudi village 9 miles off. The amin has considerable landed property in that village. He evidently went there to look after the harvest. The result of the amin's unautha absence from the chouky is this: that if dutiable [illegible] must be detain passed through free, while the trade returns are of course neglected altogether. It is difficult to detect breaches of duty of this nature

The Amin is suspended for 3 months to take effect as soon as a substitute can be found. He will also be transferred if it can be arranged to place him in a chouki out of reach of Sudakudi

Dated 17th April 1898.

Mis No. 1330

Read application for pension with Accountant General's certificate and report on behalf of R. Rama Row late Amin Land Customs Office Seshalankai Tanjore District.

Resolution

Submitted to Government for orders.

orders. On the first occasion of suspension from 22nd February 1887 to 21st May 1887 the offence was quitting his Chowki at Alatur on the evening of 6th February 1887 without leave. He admitted his absence but pleaded that he was obliged to go suddenly on account of the death of a near relative in a village 9 miles off where he had considerable property. The Head Assistant Collector who suspended him him was of opinion that he went there to look after the harvest. On the second occasion, 14th March 1889 to 13th September 1889 he was suspended for having left the same Chowki with his peon on 17th December 1888 during office hours. The reason assigned by him was that they went to the village to bring a workman to commence certain repairs to the Chowkie building already sanctioned. It was also found on inspection that the returns and records were not properly posted up and neatly kept. These punishments were inflicted long ago and there appears nothing against his conduct during the last 8 years of his service. He would appear to have been generally harmless and not particularly useful.
