Reference:- Inspector General's Proceedings G No: 414 dated 27th January 1895 and G No: 712 dated 7th February 1895 passing certain orders on papers connected with the misconduct of K. Subbaiyar 2nd clerk Sub Registrar's office Pamneni and with the loss of a registered document in the same office

The papers on record abundantly show that the clerk K. Subbaiyar is not only inefficient and careless in his work but also wilfully insubordinate and insolent to his superior officers. This is an opinion expressed by all the Sub Registrars under whom he has served.

In a recent case, which is the immediate cause of the matter on hand, he has most culpably neglected to furnish an explanation repeatedly demanded from him by the Registrar, not until the Inspector General threatened the clerk with dismissal in case of further default did the clerk tender the explanation. This explanation was a mere apology for it and was one of self inculpation.

2. The clerk is found to be habitually careless, disobedient and insolent. He never does his work punctually and properly. Insubordination and insolent conduct are his worst faults. And

Memo no 1150

Reference - Inspector General's Proceedings G no 414 dated 27 January 95 & G no 712 dated 7 February 1895. passing the orders on papers connected with the misconduct of N. Subbaiyan 2d clerk Sub Registrar's office Ponnani & with the loss of a registered document in the same office.

The papers on record abundantly show that clerk N. Subbaiyan is not only inefficient & careless in his work but also wilfully insubordinate & insolent to his superior officers. This is the opinion expressed by all the Sub Registrars under whom he has served. In a recent case which is the immediate cause of the matter on hand, he has most culpably neglected to furnish an explanation repeatedly demanded from him by the Registrar. Not until the Inspector General threatened the clerk with dismissal in case of further default did the clerk tender the explanation. This explanation was a mere apology for it & was one of self exculpation.

2. The clerk is found to be habitually careless, disobedient and insolent. He never does his work punctually and properly. Insubordination & insolent conduct are his worst faults & they are aggravated a good deal by his advanced age & his pretty long standing in the Department.

3. In view to maintain and enforce discipline [illegible] [illegible] of the work, the Registrar is oblige- deal with Subbaiyan severely on this occasion. The clerk will accordingly be suspended from duty for 45 days from the date of receipt of this order by the Sub Registrar. The clerk will understand that this is the mildest punishment that could be inflicted on him having regard to the grossest misconduct he has been guilty of. It is hoped that this punishment will teach him a lesson & that he will turn a new leaf all round.

Copy of Suspension Order

Memo No: 430

Reference:- Inspector General's Proceedings G No 414 dated 27th January 1895 and G No: 712 dated 7th February 1895 — passing certain orders on papers connected with the misconduct of R Subbaiyar 2nd clerk Sub Registrar's office Cammeni and with the loss of a registered document in the same office

The papers on record abundantly show that the clerk R. Subbaiyar is not only inefficient and careless in his work but also wilfully insubordinate and insolent to his superior officers. This is an opinion expressed by all the Sub Registrars under whom he has served. In a recent case, which is the immediate cause of the matter on hand, he has most culpably neglected to furnish an explanation repeatedly demanded from him by the Registrar, not until the Inspector General threatened the clerk with dismissal in case of further default did the clerk tender the explanation. This explanation was a mere apology for it and was one of self inculpation.

2 The clerk is found to be habitually careless disobedient and indolent. He never does his work punctually and properly. Insubordination and insolent conduct are his worst faults. An they are aggravated a good deal by his advanced age and his pretty long standing in the Department.

In view to maintain and enforce discipline and to make an example of the clerk, the Registrar is obliged to deal with Subbaiyar severely on this occasion. The clerk will accordingly be suspended from duty for 45 days from the date of receipt of this order by the Sub Registrar. The clerk will understand that this is the mildest punishment that could be inflicted on him having regard to the grossest misconduct he has been guilty of. It is hoped that this punishment will teach him a lesson and that he will turn a new leaf all round:-

4. The clerk cannot be retained any longer in Ponneri and he will be transferred elsewhere on the expiry of the suspension period

5. A copy of this order will be given to the clerk by the Sub Registrar
