Statement of M Subbray[illegible] late Vellavelli [illegible] d/14-5-98

I did not apply for pension as I will get only a very small amount and that will not suffice for my livelihood in these famine days. I wanted gratuity as I will get a lump sum which I can use in some means or other to enable me to earn my livelihood. For these reasons I did not wish to apply for pension. I was employed as Box peon during the periods from 1-11-81 to 31-1-82 and 1-6-82 to 30-6-82 and I have no records with me to show whether I was in permanent employ or only acting and am therefore unable to say as to either in the absence of any record
