Ag. Superintendent G. G. G.

A house-breaking by night occurred in the house of Mrs. Gurnamau on the 21st December 1883. He reported the crime to 1st class constable 17 Narisimhulu and Talary No. 17 Subhadra on the 22nd idem. Talary No. 17 Subhadra went to the scene of crime on the following morning and released the accused. After releasing the accused Talary No. 17 came to station and reported what he had done to 1st class constable No. 943 Ramiah - No. 943 went to the village made a nominal enquiry and wilfully submitted an incorrect report of his proceedings. He omitted to mention anything about Talary No. 17 having arrested the accused on the morning of the 23rd December or about the crime having been reported to his S. H. Officer and Talary No. 17 on the night of the 22nd December. This shows collusion with his S. H. Officer No. 171 who failed altogether to proceed at once to the scene of crime. No. 943 tries to make out in his defence that he reported to his S. H. Officer that the case against the accused had been proved by witnesses and that the S. H. Officer told him in reply that he knew the case to be false as the accused had only entered the house in order to have sexual intercourse with Gurnamau the wife of complainant.

PUNISHMENT.		By whom ordered.	Date of order.
Black Marks.	Other Punishments.

This defence is incredible in as much as 943 makes no mention whatever in his report regarding this rivalry between himself and S.H. Officer which he doubtless would have done if he had been at all anxious to bring out the misdeemeanor of his S.H. Officer. Constable 171 failed to proceed to the scene of crime at all either through sheer laziness or some evil motive on the 22nd or the 23rd. He only went on the 24th December and after holding an investigation made a wilful misrepresentation of facts. He referred the case as false on the ground that the accused had entered Complainant's house for the purpose of committing adultery with the latter's wife. This woman by name Gwini has stated that she was threatened by Constables 943 & 170 to admit illicit intimacy with the accused but that she declined to do so. Moreover Constable 171 reported in referred Charge sheet that one Giddam Butchigadu had informed him that he overheard Moola Petchimadu one of the witnesses for the prosecution teaching Complainant to throw down some property near the accused and then arrest him for theft. Giddam Butchigadu has denied on oath before the Taluk Magistrate that he ever made such a statement before the S.H. Officer. S.H. Officer 171 sets up no specific defence. I reduce 1st class Constable 171 Narasimulu to 2nd class for hushing up a burglary case No. 26 of 1883 on the Dornal Station file. 1st class Constable No. 943 Ramiah to 2nd class Constable for colluding with his S.H. Officer in the suppression of a burglary case and misrepresenting to his Inspector the facts elicited in the investigation thereof. It should be mentioned here in conclusion that the case was brought to trial through the endeavours of the Inspector and the Busbah Station house Officer and that the prisoner was eventually sentenced to 2 months rigorous imprisonment by Taluk Magistrate.
