Minute for reducing 4th Grade Head Constable No. 675 Bhawanidigh to 1st c.e. from 1-3-85

4th Grade Head Constable No. 675 Bhawanidigh of Veporeeta station & Division, showed himself in the station duty roster & beat books, as on No. 5 beat on 17th 1st instant, & as having met Constable No. 368 of Ghatla station at the meeting village. The suspect states that this is entirely false, & that the Head Constable never left the station on the 17th, when he (suspector) was then Constable No. 368 came Deudam to Veporeeta on 16th, so from the above it is plainly seen that the Head Constable must have arranged with No. 368 that they should show themselves on the duty roster & Beat Books that they affected a meeting all the time never intending to meet actually at the meeting place had made the entry in his records little expecting his Inspector would arrive on 17th morning & find him present at the station instead of having gone on Beat as shown in the duty roster & Beat Book. The Head Constable was beautifully caught & could not get out of the scrape he was in, & therefore could only plead guilty. In his defence he begs to be excused. He was for a long time at Sonipoy station 2nd Division where he shirked his duty. He was then removed to Lakkireddipally, where a case of bribery was brought against him, which was quired into by the Taluk Magistrate, & thrown out. It was then thought advisable to remove him nearer to the 2nd Division Head Quarters, where he would be better supervised, so he was transferred to his present station (Veporeota).

(Veporeota) was in a against for falsifying his records & shirking his Beat duty. As the above charge is fully charged & proved against the Head Constable & he is undoubtedly a great duty shirker, I consider he fully deserves reduction to 1st class Constable which he is now recommended for.

Remarks by the Supt of Police
The Head Constable 675 Bhawanisigh filled up his records, beat book & duty roster showing that he had gone on beat on 17.2.85 & had such Constable no 578 of the neighbouring station, the Inspector came unexpectedly to the Head Constable's station, & discovered the Head Constable actually present, a clearer case of falsification of records, it would be position. He is charged with his offence at once he had no defence to make, but to beg that his right be forgiven; his prayer is so far heard, that he is not criminally charged or dismissed, but he is reduced to 2^d class Constable, as a lazy, utterly useless & untrustworthy man, his antecedents, as pointed out by the Assistant Superintendent are bad & in this case his offence is grossly aggravated by his having evidently entered into a plot with the Constable of a high honouring station to falsify the records of that station also.

1st class Court No 675 Bhawani Singh of HI Division is reduced to 2^d class Court for releasing an arrested person without taking bail from him.

Inspector HI reports that this Constable released one Goshiti Ramiah accused in Angaloo case No 22 Su: 4984380 I.C. without taking bail from him.

Railway orderly No 20 of Kurabalacota proved having brought accused to station. There are no entries in station records to prove any procedure was adopted. Court No 675 admits that accused was brought to station but defends himself by saying that knowing the Station House officer was at Kurabalacota he told Court No 20 to take accused to him. This even supposing it to be a truthful statement would have been a senseless procedure to adopt knowing that the arrest had been made at Kurabalacota and that accused had just been brought from that place, also the Station House officer would have no records with him. He states that the Station House officer was to blame and that he has no power to take bail when Station House officer is present. This is almost as senseless as previous excuse since according to his own showing the Station House officer was not present and therefore cannot be held to be responsible

Inspector General of Police

... could only have urged such a senseless excuse with the knowledge that his S.H.O. was already under a cloud and ~~not~~ thinking that any statement against him (S.H.O.) would be gladly accepted in mitigation of his own offense. This bad feeling which is noticed and is believed to be not entirely ~~unfounded~~ ^{unfounded} must be stamped out at once but this is not weighed in connection with the present offense.
The ~~for~~ default (Court No 675) was once a Station House officer but was removed from that grade because it cannot be for a moment be thought that he was entirely ignorant of procedure. Further he personally wrote the S.H. Reports for 2-5-97 the date of offense in this he admits that he released the accused since there was only the statement of the complainant against the accused. It is clear here that Court 675 at the time accepted the responsibility of his action as station in charge and it may be fairly assumed that subsequently learning of the S.H.O. misfortune he has attempted to aid in his down fall by making the above absurd excuses. The excuses however cannot be entertained for a moment. His action was disgraceful and his probably only one step in an affair that will be found
