Please see the records in the last case - tampering with records of a murder case. 8th A 61578 P.T.O.

The Inspr. Genl. has now forwarded the records called for* in OM No. 19 D/9th May 1898 – From these papers it appears that the applicant, while a 4th Gr. Hd. Con., received a report of a Murder from the Patro (Village Head) of Tettiko on 12th Sepr. 1896 and proceeded to the scene of crime – That after enquiring into the case and tracing the offence to two individuals and obtaining confessional statements from them the applicant suppressed the report sent by the Patro, as no mention of the accused was made in it and no confession hinted at therein, and got the Patro to write or rather give his consent to have written another report in which the names of the two individuals above referred to were entered, to support the case – It appears that the applicant also delayed the submission of his Station House Reports for 12th & 13 Sepr 1896 & that these reports were not true reports of the respective day's occurrence.

*[Flag C]

Hence the charge of "tampering with his record in a murder case" for which he was reduced from 4 Gr. H.C. to 1st C.C. in April 1897.

From Inspector-General of Police.

Minute No. 84 of 1897.

1. 2nd Grade Head Constable No. 972 Sarathy Bhimaya of Halaghat Station Mohana division (Berhampur

2. Tampering with the records in a murder case on 12.9.96.

3. Suppressing the village Heads' first report of a murder which occurred on 7.9.96 and which report was received by Head Constable on 12.9.96.

4. On 11.11.96 the Patro of Jiliki wrote a report of a murder to the Halaghat Police according to the statement of the men who were sent with it; they gave it to this Head Cons: the following (12th) forenoon and according to the evidence of the wits: examined by the Sub-Magistrate in his enquiry into the murder and also the evidence of two Constables wits: the Head Constable reached the scene of Crime on 12th evening and commenced his enquiry. On 13th the Patro in his original deposition before Sub-Magistrate says that after the Police had arrived at the ~~same~~ scene of Crime and after accd. had confessed before them, they (Police) got him to write or rather give his consent to have written another report which was the one sent to Sub Magistrate. This same Patro when examined again by Spl. Asst. Agent denies altogether what he had told before the Sub Magistrate and then again when examined said that what he had first told the Sub-Magistrate was the truth. The report which was sent to Sub-Magistrate gives the names of two persons as accused whereas the wits: before the Magistrate, all says they did not suspect these accused at first and it was only after the Police arrived that they suspected accused and got them to confess. The person whom the Pabro says he got to write the original report to the Police denies that he wrote the one now produced in Court.

Head Constable in defence says he received the first report on the 13th, arrived at scene of crime that night and commenced his enquiry on 14th – Although the Pabro has contradicted himself more than once yet his original statement before the Sub-Magistrate may I think be considered as the correct story of what really took place since this statement is corroborated by other witnesses not interested in the murder. Head Constable's motive for suppressing the first report is clear viz no mention having been made of the accused and no confession hinted at; he found out the truth and then got a report written to support his case; The Roster shows that H.C. commenced his enquiry on 14th. The only in support of Head Constable is the S. R. Report for 13th which contain the first report of the case and which mentions accused by name. This report was received by Inspr. on 14th. – But this report and that of the 12th are both written by this Head Constable who admits he left his station early on the 13th; therefore how could he write a station report for that day unless at the scene of crime – The station report of 12th is shown as despatched on 13th and received by Inspr. 14th whereas if it was despatched on 13th it ought to have reached Inspector the same evening. The conclusion is that the reports for 12th & 13th were both despatched on 14th at the same time and that though he received word of the murder on 12th yet he did not mention it in that day's report –

5. Recommended for reduction to 1st Class Constable –

6. Not suspended –

7. The Case occurred in September/96 was disposed of by Sub-Magistrate in October 1896. The Magistrate's judgement was sent to Asst. Superintendent in November/96 for enquiry. Asst. Superintendent was unable to enquire into it as he was not allowed up to the hills till January/97. In February Spl. Asst. Agent examined the parties in the murder case and at the request of Asst. Superintendent forwarded a report to Agent; Spl. Asst. Agent's report was received on 16th April. Asst. Superintendent then wrote to Superintendent for ~~some~~ in some papers in his office in connection with the case. The papers were received on 27th April /97 -

unable

There is no doubt in my mind that this Head Constable delayed in submitting his S. H. Reports for 12th & 13th Sept./96 and that he lied in his explanation for so doing -

He was temporarily reduced in 1895 for wilfully making a false report that he made enquiries into an accidental death case when he had had not done so" - He, it is clear, wrote his S. H. Reports for 12th & 13th from scene of Crime and that these Reports are not true reports of the respective days' occurrence -
