applicant.

3. The applicant enjoyed Privilege leave for 20 days from 8th January 1873. The grant was irregular as he had not put in 11 months service since his return to duty on 21st December 1872 from absence without leave for 5 days. It rests therefore with Government to decide whether or not the leave allowances irregularly drawn by the applicant should be recovered from the arrears of pension that may be sanctioned to him.

4. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Inspector General of Police in para 6 of his letter No. 122/P.R. of 21-5-98 accompanying.

When this Head Constable was in charge of Naroor, theft of a bullock was reported to him and he was told the name of the accused person. He enquired the accused who admitted the commission of the crime. He left the accused at his liberty and went in search of the stolen property which had been sold by the defendant to a man in the Rapur Taluq. Meanwhile the accused absconded and has not been captured up to date. In defence he states that there was no evidence ~~to~~ of arrest. This is absurd. What better grounds would he have had for arrest than the pure voluntary confession of the prisoner? This Head Constable must either have taken some consideration from the accused and let him get off scot-free or he must be a stupid ignorant man. There is no other conclusion that can possibly be arrived at. I reduce 3rd Grade Head Constable 1101 to 4th Grade Head Constable for neglect of duty in not at once arresting an accused person who made a voluntary confession of theft before him and allowing him to abscond.

Ag. Superintendent of Police, Nellore

Minute of 2nd Gr. Hd. C. No. 561/1101 Venkata Subbiah of Nellore Police Force.

On the 10th December one P. Komachamma laid a Complaint before this Head Constable at the Inner Police Station that one Polamma and her son — Rama Chendra Reddi had assembled some 200 or 300 persons and were removing paddy from her house, and requested him to come and prevent them from doing so, and recover her property. On the Complaint being made, this Head Constable and Constable 205 went to the Complainant's house at Macherlamarripalem, and on their way, were informed that some of the thieves were armed with sticks. On their arrival the persons assembled, dispersed, leaving some of their sticks, which the Complainant had collected and asked the Head Constable to take charge of. He refused to do so & after waiting a short time returned to his Station, registered the case under section 424 I.P.C. and referred the complaint to the magistrate. The Complainant then presented petitions to the Dist. Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, and the Dy. Inspector made a through investigation of the case, measuring the paddy which had been removed amounting to some 400 puttis valued at Rs 12,000, and charging the defendants before the Sub Magistrate with theft. The Head Constable's defence is that the case is a civil one and that in 1883 he had referred for the magistrate's orders, on the same grounds, a similar case brought by the same Complainant, and it had been removed from the file by the orders of the Sub Magistrate that the fact that the persons who were removing paddy were armed with sticks, was not alluded to in the first report that sticks were not seen or pointed out to him; and that the fact was a subsequent invention of Complainant to give the matter the appearance of a Criminal Offence. He finishes up his defence by accusing the Hd Quarter Inspector of enmity and of inducing his Dn Inspector to get him into trouble.

There is no doubt whatever about the removal of the paddy, and it must have taken at least 200 persons to have removed it in the time they did remove it in. The Hd Constable does not deny the removal, yet he considers there were no grounds for his interference, though a large crowd had assembled from three different villages and were removing paddy from receptacles in another person's house, and that person was protesting against it, and accusing them of theft. The fact of the sticks having been mentioned or not in the first report, a point the Hd Constable lays great stress on, is immaterial as no one tries to prove — robbery. They were much excited and details were likely to be omitted in the first report, scribbled to the Station. It is merely begging the question, which is, was a theft reported ~~and~~ did the Hd Constable proceed with it in a regular manner, and not, was it theft or robbery, or a riot or affray? Constable 205, however who the Hd Constable says was with him and who happened to be examined before the Hd Constable tampered with him, declares that sticks left by the persons who had been removing paddy & who dispersed on their arrival were collected by the Complainant and handed to the Head Constable, who refused to take charge of them. Besides this Constable, there are several other witnesses to prove the fact whose statements have been recorded on oath by the Sub Magistrate and can be procured if necessary

The case no doubt ~~hang~~ hinges on a family dispute which has been going on for a considerable time, but a short time prior to the present event the Hd Constable had received an order by express to preserve the peace on demand made by the same Complainant, when she was storing her paddy, and he then saw the view taken of it by the District Magistrate. That the case might ultimately — terminate in a non-cognizable or a civil one does not assist the Hd Constable in the least, as he seems to think. The fact remains unchallenged that the Complainant made a complaint of theft which he did not register, that he went to the scene of crime, saw a large number of persons running away who had been removing paddy, that he refused to interfere and referred the complaint to the Magistrate, registering the case under a non-cognizable Section on return to Station, and that he failed to send any report though the value of the property in dispute was at least Rs 12,000

The Inspector says the Hd Constable was bought over by the defendants whom he had favoured on previous occasions, and though there is no evidence of this, there can be little doubt, that it was so. An experienced Hd Constable would not act like this through ignorance. He is given to mixing himself up in factions and was transferred from Malunudi for the same reason.

He is reduced to 3rd G. Hd. C. for 1 neglecting to register a complaint of theft made to him in his station before going to scene of crime

I neglecting to interfere when he saw a large number of persons carrying away Complainants' paddy.

2. He has served in the Police Department for 28 years 8 months and 4 days, and has borne a fair character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the District Surgeon on the 15th March 1898.

3. He is entitled to an invalid monthly pension of Rupees (11. 8. 3), Eleven annas Eight and pies three payable at Nellore from 16th March 1898, according to ~~of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and~~ Articles 405 & 518(b) of the Civil Service Regulations (~~Second~~ Third Edition).

4. I request that his absence without leave as specified in his application may be retrospectively commuted into leave without allowances under Article 464 of the Regulations.

5. It will be seen from the Service Book that the applicant was on privilege for 20 days from 18th January 1873. This grant was irregular as he did not put in 11 months' continuous service since his return from absence without leave on 21st December 1872. Similar grants have been overlooked in the cases disposed of in G.Os. No. 142 dated 10th February 1893, 236 dated 21st March 1893 and 195 dated 10th March 1898, [illegible]sion.—

6. Reference was made to the District regarding the Applicant's absence in 1892 as well as his reversion in 1888, owing to which delay has been caused in the Submission of this Application

To the Accountant-General, with the Register and L. P. C.
Inspector-General of Police.

[illegible] 25/6 [illegible] Rs 11-4.

The last recorded misconduct was in 1885 in connection with apparently an agricultural dispute. I think it would be sufficient to reduce pension to R 11-4.
