To,

E. L. Vaughan Esq^{re}

Collector of Cuddapah through the Treasury Dy. Collector of Cuddapah.

Sir,

Having learnt that Messers Binny & Co have negotiated with Government for the entire disposal of the remaining Famine Cloths in the Cuddapah Central Depot, by the end of May next, which definitely determines the duration of my Apiece as temporary not to last more than 6 or 7 months, and as more than one half of the Cloths have been sold and removed, I respectfully beg that the Government may be now addressed, under article 549 of the Civil Service Regulations, regarding the payment of my pension in full in addition to my salary as Head Store keeper of the Cuddapah Central depot.

I took up my appointment in the belief that I would not be deprived deprived of any portion of my pension which was granted to me for my past services, and the Collector would write to Government under the above quoted article.

The Cuddapah Central depot is the largest in the Presidency, and I have been in sole charge of this responsible depot containing Famine Cloths valued at about 3 or 4 lacs of rupees. My salary as Head Storekeeper of this depot is Rs. 50 a month, and though this amount is paid to me every month, a deduction of Rs. 20 is however made from my pension monthly, and after deducting Rs. 1.8.0 for income tax on both pay & pension Rs. 60, it will be seen that after these deductions are made, I really get no more than Rs. 28.8.0 a month, for the very responsible office I hold as Head Storekeeper of the Cuddapah Central depot, and for which I have furnished the necessary security required of me, and my pension is also held as a further guarantee for for the honest discharge of my work. I represented all this to the Treasury Deputy Collector at the beginning, and demurred receiving my salary for some time, but I was assured by that Officer that Government would be addressed on the subject, and that I would not be deprived of any portion of my pension. Under these circumstances, I respectfully solicit that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the payment of my pension in full, as well as my salary as Head Storekeeper of the Cuddapah Central depot from 29th November 1897.

I respectfully beg to remain
