(Certificate for retirement on invalid pension or gratuity.)

CERTIFIED that I have carefully examined Manuel Kamathi;

son of Sayr Kamti;

a Peon of the District Munsif's Court, Kasaragod.

in the Judicial Department.

His age is by his own statement 56 years and by appearance about 60.

I consider Manuel Kamti

to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind or in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of Premature Oldage, weak heart & General Emaciation.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

District Munsif's Court
Kasaragod Dated 8th January 1894

From

The District Munsiff of Kasaragod.

To

W. C. Holmes Esquire District Judge of South Canara

Respected Sir,

I beg to state that I have this day suspended Process server Manuel Kampti for one month for disobedience of orders and wanton neglect of duty. Pursuant to the orders of Government and High Court, I had arranged for the dispatch of urgent business during five of the Christmas holidays and Manuel Kampti had been entrusted (as others had been) with the execution of certain Processes during the said period. If he had obeyed my orders, he could have easily executed them and enjoyed ample holidays; but instead of doing so, he perfunctorily executed some and kept the rest with himself on the ~~place~~ plea that he had the liberty to enjoy the holidays granted by Government and returned them unexecuted on the 3rd instant. I shudder to think that if this neglect of duty on the part of the peon had happened in connection with Processes issued by the High Court, what explanation could have been submitted. Fortunately they were processes of this Court and the result of the peon's neglect has subjected the parties to expence, inconvenience and delays and the Court itself has been obliged to adjourn the cases and throw the costs upon the parties themselves though I confess with very questionable justice.

2. The peon now pleads illness a too common subterfuge to be believed. If he had in fact, been ill, he could have at once returned the processes to the Deputy Nazir to enable him to distribute them among other process servers between the 26th and 30th December on which he was required to execute them. Instead of doing so, he retained them with himself unexecuted with the protest that I had no authority to entrust him with work during Government holidays. Such an impudent behaviour on the part of the peon requires an exemplary punishment. But I am not willing to be too hard upon the man. I have therefore ordered his suspension for one month and appointed Panduranga Pai to act for him under Sec 23 of the Civil Courts Act.

I beg to remain
Respected Sir,
Your most obedient servant

Proceedings of the District Court South Canara Dated 11th January 1894.

Read report № 4, dated 8th Inst, from District Munsif of Kasaragod, submitting for approval the suspension of Process Server Manuel Kanti for 1 month for disobedience of orders and wanton neglect of duty and the appointment of Panduranga Pai to act for him.

Order: Approved. It is to be hoped the peons will not misunderstand the leniency with which this peon's neglect of duty was dealt with.

No 1429.

Proceedings of the District Court, Sout
Canara, dated 25th April 1897.

Read Ittillah No 358/20.4.97 from the District Munsif of Kasaragod submitting two judgments of the Stationary Magistr Kasaragod on the conduct of Peon Manue Kamti and soliciting orders for the Peon's retirement.

Order. The 2 Judgments prove that th peon now reported on in each case, made a wilfully false return.

2. It would have been well if the unsati factory nature of his conduct had been brought to notice at the time when his reten
-tion after reaching the limit of 55 years wa
under consideration - I do not think it righ to cancel the order for his retention - He will 8 be suspended for 3 months and warned
5 that in case of any such false return bein 479 again made by him, he will be at once dismissed - The remarks of the District Munsi about the "human considerations" which have prevented him from taking the proper steps to punish such gross breaches of duty - which are also criminal offences - Shew how it has been possible for such laxness of discipline to prevail - That it does not prevail - that offences of the kind here described by the Munsif occur throughout the District - has been already brought to the notice of the undersigned in the ordinary course of his judicial work.

Copy of this report and the order on it will be forwarded to all the Munsifs with a request that they will each and all take steps to put a stop to a flagrant abuse of an official position which must bring discredit on justice.
