No. 1673 OF 1898.

From

THE INSPECTRESS OF GIRLS' SCHOOLS,
Central CIRCLE,

To

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
MADRAS.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit an application for invalid gratuity on behalf of D. Maangammah, Conductress Government Girls' School, Ranganaikspet and to recommend it for sanction.

2. The conductress was appointed sub. pro. tem. and was not recommended for confirmation until last year but could not then obtain a medical certificate. As it is ruled in Proceedings dt^o. $\frac{12032}{7.11.96}$ that persons of long service should not be retired without pension or gratuity, I have now confirmed her in the appointment. This confirmation should be noted in the service book.

3. The leave entered on page 9 of the service book as having been taken in 1897 should be 1 month and 9 days and not 1 month and 8 days. An extension of leave on loss of pay on the 1st and 2nd March 1898 was also sanctioned for this conductress and that should be entered in the service book.

462 ~~64~~

4. The conductress gave her age as Sixty before the District Surgeon; hence the difference between the invalid certificate and the service book.

5. The Sub Assistant I[illegible] Bellary D.:O.!

on the Service register

have been verified up to date.

b. A statement showing the pay and the capitation allowance drawn by the Conductress from the date of entertainment up to the date of retirement is enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Your most obedient servant,

I Brander

FOR ORDERS.

(flag A)

The applicant entered the service on 1st April 1885 as a Conductress in the Govt. Girls' School at Ranganaikapet, and after having rendered 12 years, 11 months and 2 days' service of further service in consequence of old age &c. According to the entry in her service book she was born in '1845' and in accordance with G.O. 1013 Pension d/26 Oct. 1896, taking the 1st July of that year as the date of her birth, she was less than 40 years old at the time of her admission to the service and she would therefore be eligible for a gratuity of 4 months' pay. But the applicant appears to have given her age as 60 before the Invaliding Surgeon who also considered her to be about that age from her appearance. If this age be accepted as correct then the applicant would have been more than 40 years when she entered the service and consequently no retiring allowance would be admissible to her under art. 392 CSR. The Acctt Genl. has taken the latter age as correct and has accordingly reported that the applicant's claim to any gratuity is barred by art. 392 CSR.

It is, however, submitted that where there for pension, the rule invariably adopted has been to accept the date entered in the service book as correct, and this rule has been affirmed in several G.Os. a few of which are put up for reference. As a matter of fact the Accts. Genl. also has followed the above ruling in several cases reported upon by him as will be apparent from the G.Os referred to. Moreover in a case precisely similar to the one now under consideration the Accts-Genl. has accepted the service book entry as correct and reported the applicant to be eligible for a retiring allowance - vide G.O. No 832 Pension, d/7ᵗʰ Augt 1893 (flagged E)

Submitted that there appears to be no reason for a departure from the general rule in the present instance and that following the precedents contained in the G.Os quoted above the applicant's age as entered in the service book may be accepted as correct and the Accts Genl. be asked to report the amount of retiring allowance that would then be admissible to the applicant.
