Proceedings of the District Court of Tanjore

The 1st day of August 1893.

Read letter No. 624 of the 27th Ultimo from the Sub Judge Kumbakonum requesting instructions as to how the two months' pay of the Clerk, Mr. D. Samuel Pillai, should be recovered as he has already drawn his pay for the two months and recommending a fine of Rs 5 may be imposed on him, or he be suspended for a couple of weeks, if this Court think a simple fine a lenient punishment.

Order.

The Clerk will be suspended for two months. A small fine is not a sufficient punishment for flagrant disobedience of the orders of the District Court.

Sir,

With reference to ~~the~~ your Proceedings No 583 of the 17th July 1893, directing that Mr. S. Samuel Pillai a Clerk of this Court will be treated as on leave on forfeiture of full pay for the whole of the recess of this year, I have the honor to inform you that the said Clerk has already drawn his pay for the above period and states and I do believe him to be unable to pay up the sum of Rs 40, the pay of the two months recess. In this state, I beg to be informed whether the recovery should be effected by short drawal for the next two months leaving him without pay or by small sums over several months. I would rather recommend that a fine of five Rs be imposed upon him or he be suspended for a couple of weeks, if you think a simple fine a lenient punishment.
