SIR,

With reference to your letters Nos 21462, dated the 16th January and 15th February 1898 respectively stating that your employer has granted you leave from 1st April next for 8 months, and enquiring whether you are entitled to allowances from Government for the period of your absence, I have the honour to observe that as you have attained the age of 55 years the only kinds of leave for which you are eligible are Privilege leave, leave on Private affairs and leave without allowances for 6 months under Article 377 of the Civil Service Regulations. As you have already enjoyed furlough, you are not entitled to leave on Private affairs under Article 370 of the Civil Service Regulations. You are therefore only entitled to the Privilege leave earned since your return from leave without allowances in 1895.

2. I take this opportunity of inviting your attention to Article 838 and note of the Civil Service Regulations from which you will see that you are not at liberty to avail yourself of leave granted otherwise than in accordance with those Regulations.

3. Should you elect to avail yourself of the Privilege Leave to which you are entitled, your leave allowance will under Articles 835(b) and 981(a) of the Civil Service Regulations be charged to the Zemindari and not to Government.

state that I think you have not treated that the injustice of which I complain

I contributed for pension for 24 years, and in the whole of that time I had only a

I was not in a position to untie the red-tape in which certain rules are involved.
3. In your letter under reference, which

SIR,

In reply to your Memo No. 26 dated the 16th of June 1898, I have the honour to inform you that Mr. Taylor has paid the arrears of his pensionary contribution due up to 31st December '97. The contribution due for the quarter commencing from 1st January 1898, not having been paid, the Treasury Officer Ganjam was requested last month to arrange for its recovery. But in reply he states that Mr. Taylor is now on leave and his whereabouts are not known and that on his return the contribution due will be recovered from him with penal interest due thereon.

The kind of leave, which Mr. Taylor is now on, is not known to this Office. I forward herewith a copy of my letter No. $\frac{JACB}{68 \& 7}$ dated 5 March last in which he was informed that the only kind of leave to which he is entitled under the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations, as an Officer of the British Government, is Privilege leave.

question of granting him a retiring allowance will not he considers himself entitled both by age and service. Submit a formal application In the above letter Mr. Taylor points out that having attained the age of 55 years and his service not having been extended, he is no longer a servant of Govt. and that as he has served or contributed to Govt. for accordingly requests the Acctt. Genl. either (1) to arrange for the payment of the pension due to him without delay, or (2) in case no pension can be granted to him under the rules, to refund the amount he has contributed to Govt. for pension during the last 26 years. The Acctt. Genl. in reporting on Mr. Taylor's letter invites attention to para 2 of G.O. No. 873 Pension, of 19-11-97, in which it was stated that Mr. Taylor could not be permitted to retire from the Govt. service without prejudice to his continuance in the employment of the Zemindar, and adds that if Mr. Taylor now resigns his appointment under the Rajah of Parakimedi and is permitted to retire from the service, the Collector of Ganjam may be asked to forward a formal application for pension on behalf of Mr. Taylor in lieu of the one already submitted. As regards Mr. Taylor's 1st request it is submitted that inasmuch as he still continues in the service of the Zemindar, no retiring allowance can now be granted to him in accordance with the decision arrived at in the G.O. referred to above. The fact that he is now over 55 years of age and that he has completed 30 years' service doubtless entitles him to voluntary retirement under arts. 508 & 509 C.S.R., but his continuance in the Zemindar's service debars the grant of a retiring allowance. As to his alternative request for the refund of the pensionary contribution paid by him, attention is respectfully solicited to art. 834 C.S.R., from which it will be seen that Mr. Taylor has no claim in respect to such contribution "except to receive such pension or absentee allowance as may become admissible to him in accordance with the rules of the service to which he belongs".

Orders solicited as to whether Mr. Taylor may again be informed that no retiring allowance can be granted to him so long as he continues in the Zemindar's service and further that his request for the refund of the amount of pensionary contribution paid by him is inadmissible under the rules.

Attention is respectfully solicited to the Chief Secretary's remarks in pencil on Mr. Taylor's letter flagged (C). This is not the first occasion Mr. Taylor has been guilty of using improper language in his letters to the Acctt. Genl. Please see para 1 of G.O. 636 Pension - Flag A. 16-8-97

The Treasury Officer, Ganjam was requested by the Acctt.
