1. Leave without allowances could be granted for any length of time according to Article 372, C.S.R as it stood before the amendment no. 1771, dated 27th June 1895.

2. The date of applicant's appointment in this Court was originally shown in the Service Book as 7th March 1888. But when the Service Book was rectified in 1889 the date appears to have been changed, with reference to the acquittance Roll, as 6th March 1888, which date seems to be correct.

3. 7 days' leave without allowances was granted to the applicant in March 1884. This leave appears to have been entered in the Service Book only in 1888, and so it came to be omitted in the annual Return of 1884. The date of the beginning and termination of that leave not having been specified in the acquittance Roll, and there being no other record giving the required information, an affidavit has been taken from the applicant and submitted already.
