Pension. The Sanitary Commissioner says that on the 9th Feb. 1897 Chidambaram Pillai took up a temporary Vaccinator's place on Rs 15 on account of his then distressed condition and as he did not get his pension for a long time after his retirement. His services were dispensed with on the 31st Jan 1898 on the completion of the work in connection with which he was temporarily intertained. The Act-Genl certifies that the

The Acct. Genl. says that as the salary Chidambaram Pillai drew on reemployment was equal to that which he was in receipt of at the time of retirement, his pension was withheld for the above period agreeably to art. 574 of the C.S.R. He, however, adds that as the appointment was only temporary lasting for a period less than 12 months, the reemployment may be sanctioned with retrospective effect under art. 579. C.S.R. Hence draft order for approval.

Yours moved for,
In the hope of being pardoned for the liberty taken in the present instance for intruding upon your precious moments and being convinced that every day of life, one and all of the thousands under your honors' sway, approach your honor and receive that distinguished justice which becomes the generous characteristic of the English Nobility. Your honors' humble servant begs to submit the following for favorable consideration and support.

* Please see para 3 Govt. orders attached.

That owing to the delay in the submission of papers for my pension viz: more than 2 years. I was reduced to the greatest poverty without pay although I frequently addressed my superiors on the subject yet it proved utterly useless.

I was actually compelled from

Stamatin

starvation to take up a temporary employment as Vaccinator on Rupees 15 per month in the interests of Government, the Appointment to last for only 6 months and were I not to have done so, my wife and children and myself must die from starvation as I was stricken off from the strength of the Vaccine Department for pension 2 years ago. Notwithstanding this, I was not provided with any sort of maintenance allowance during the time I was without pay.

Now that my pension has been sanctioned by Government, I consider it just that my arrears of pension pay should be paid without any retrenchment being made during the time I was temporarily employed.

The Accountant General has retrenched from my pension pay, one year's pension, it must be understood that Government did not provide with employment for my subsistence, but that I was compelled to seek one in consequence of the unnecessary delay that took place in in the submission of my pension papers for which I am ^{not} to be blamed.

Under the above circumstances I humbly solicit the favor of your honor causing the retrenched pension pay, being paid to me, for which act of justice I and my family will ever pray for your honor's long life and prosperity.

And furthermore, I did not receive Rupees 15 every month, some months, I received less. This depended upon the maximum number 200 that I should vaccinate a month.

Besides this, other vaccinators who were pensioned, served, and received their pay as when they were effective.

Humbly soliciting the favor of early orders.

I beg to remain

THE

Secretary to Government, Pension Department.

SIR,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 25, dated the 4th of June 1898, I have the honour to state that Chithambaram Pillai who was granted an Invalid pension of Rs 5-12- per mensem under Government Order No. 228 dated 18th March 97, was reemployed as a Temporary Vaccinator in the Buddalur Range, South Arcot District, from 9th February 1897 to 31st January 1898, on a salary of Rs 15/- a month. As the salary, he drew on re-employment, was equal to that which he drew at the time of retirement, his pension was withheld for the above period agreeably to Article 574 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Should Government be pleased, in consideration of the fact fact that the appointment which the applicant held was only temporary lasting for a period of less than 12 months and that the salary attached to it was not fixed but depended on the number of persons vaccinated by him, to accord sanction to his reemployment with retrospective effect, agreeably to Article 579 of the Civil Service Regulations, he can draw his pension in addition to pay for the period referred to as recommended by the Acting Sanitary Commissioner in his Endorsement Memo. No. $\frac{900}{V}$ dated 19 July '90 - copy enclosed.

The papers received with your Endorsement Memo under reply are herewith returned.
