Before Mr. K. Ry. T. Gopalan Ayyar Treasury Dy. Collector North Arcot

Affidavit of Battori Vijayaraghavalu Naidu 2nd compositor Collector's office.

I was appointed as permanent apprentice on Rs 7 per mensem on the 16th July 1863 in the South Arcot Collector's office. I continued in this appointment for some months. Then I was promoted to a compositor's post. I got myself transferred to this district from the post of a compositor on Rs 12 per mensem in that district to that of a compositor on rupees ten in this district as my father was in this town. But I was not sent on less pay for any fault of mine. There was no break in my service while I was in the South Arcot District except the leave granted to me by proper authorities. I affirm that I was not suspended while I was in that district. In this district I was suspended for for 2 Months in 1870 for 2 days absence without leave. During the whole of my service I was not suspended except the single suspension referred to above.

Sir,

In reply to your reference on Cur No 2261/Acct dated the 3rd Instant, I have the honor to state that, from an examination of the office copies of pay bills kept in this office, compositor B. Vijayaraghavalu Naidu appears to have been granted sick leave on half pay from 15th June to 9th August 1867; and leave on half pay from 26th March to 17th April 1867. The kind of leave in the latter case has not been noted in the bills; but considering the short service he had then had he should have been granted only sick leave on this occasion as well. Your supposi that he might have been granted private affairs leave or furlough on both the occasions would therefore appear to be incorrect

2. Vijiaraghavalu Naidu had a lien on his substantive appointment (5th Compositor on Rs 12) when he acted as 4th Compositor on Rs 15 from 20th to 29 October 1868; but he drew a moiety of the pay of each of the two appointments during the period
