Order. 2^d grade Head Constable No 498 Shaitk Alty of G II Bhakarapett is reduced to 4th grade from 1-3-96 I Charge. 2^d grade Head Const No 498 Shaitk Alty of G II Bhakarapett is charged with bringing false charges against his Inspector 4-11-95 Evidence. on 4-11-95, a petition was sent to the Superintendent signed by this Head Constable who was then S.W. 6 of Belair & by 12 const of the station stating that the Inspector Mr Daniel was in the habit of getting drunk, abusing & beating petitioners & employing them to bring him prostitutes.
They therefore prayed that they might be transferred or that their resignations might be accepted. I enquired into the petition examining all the signatories. Seven of them are by (845 Imam Khan, 521 Anunay Saile, 100 Biram Khan 962. Kawan Saile, 461 Shaitk Bahau, 586 Venkatasayya 470 Venkatasawmy) stated that they did not know the contents of the petition & that they

They signed it at the request or upon the compulsion of the Head Constable. 2^d Class Constable no 825 Narasojee Row. stated that Suspector beat Constable no 34 Kunusawmy who has resigned & Constable no 780 Budden Sath of Gannimetta He witnessed the beating of Const no 780. It was on the night of 31.10.95 in the station in the presence of Consts 461, 521, & 700. He signed the petition for fear he should himself be beaten.
I examined Const 780 who denied having been beaten. Constables 521, 700 & 461 denied having seen him beaten.

2^d Class Const. 684 Naraganasawmy stated that on 20/10 at 9 P.M., the Suspector sent his wicked Const 284 for him & told him to go & bring him the sister-in-law of one Mr Allan who was staying in the Railway station then he refused. Suspector got up to beat him but he ran away. Suspector was drunk. No one was present. He has on occasions seen the Suspector drunk.

I have no hesitation in dismissing this allegation as false. The petition was written by this Const, who was one of the prime movers in the matter. He fails to produce any evidence.
He did not complain till a fortnight later.
Such allegations must be proved. It

It cannot be tolerated that a Suspector should be called upon to answer such a charge till evidence as to its truth is produced.
Suspector lives in a Room in the Union office in the Bazar street. A disturbance of this nature would surely have attracted notice.
Constable no 294 Abdul Kareem states that on one occasion Suspector abused him & got up to beat him, but he ran away.
Suspector beat Const Samson who resigned.
2^d Class Const 472 Abdul Quadar states that Suspector used to abuse him and other Constables.

2^d Class Constable 565 - Fakkerappah states that Suspector abused him on 31/10 evening & attempted to beat him, but he ran away. Suspector was drunk. He smelt of arrack. The above 3 charges do not deserve consideration. They are not supported by evidence & are evidently put forward to justify the Consts for having subscribed to the petition.

The Defence Head Constable no 498 states that at 5 P.M. on 2/11 he went to see Suspector Suspector asked him why he had not left left a space under Crime no 48 in Inspector's Crime Register (The Head Constable had just been in Division charge.) Inspector then called him row of a horse & row of a pig & told him to go away or he would slipper him. He was drunk his eyes were red & he appeared drunk.

on the 3rd he began to write a petition, but the Constables asked him why he was so sorrowful & he told them. They then said that they were going to write a petition against Inspector & asked him to join. Accordingly Const 654 wrote the petition which he signed and forwarded. The petition was not sent with the object of complaining against the Inspector but in order to get a transfer. He never intended to prove the allegations. The several acts of ill usage to which each man had been subjected were collectively given in the petition. The particular injury which he had to complain of was being called a pig which was very disgraceful for a trooper.

III Finding Inspector denies that he abused this man or that he ever spoke to him about having a space in the Crime register or ever told him to do so, & states that therefore there could be no occasion for him to have abused the man on the subject. I find that the scandalous allegations contained in this petition are not proved. A man who prefers such accusations should be prepared to prove them. It is not for the accused party to disprove them until they have proved in a prima facie manner. In his explanation the Head Constable goes so far as to state that he never intended to substantiate the charges. The sending in of this had a most detrimental effect upon the discipline of the Division. Any man handed up for punishment could plead that he had incurred Inspector's displeasure by subscribing to it. Until enquiring Inspector was felt to be more or less under a cloud. The personal annoyance caused to Inspector also must have been not inconsiderable. I find ~~if~~ the chief reason for sending in the petition to have been the hopes of obtaining a transfer from under an Inspector who was maintaining strict discipline & at the same time from an unpopular Division. The Head Constable clearly had a large share in getting up the petition. Seven Consts say that they they signed under inducements from him, + from his position in the station his influence must have been large. I, therefore am of the opinion that he should have a heavy punishment. Const 654 a chief promoter of the agitation will be recommended for severe punishment + the remaining signatories in a less degree.
