On the occasion of 1st ceno: 817 Ludderick coming to Udayagiri from Dorela the and remaining in Udayagiri for 4 days viz from 23^d to 28th of September inclusive, this constable wrote out a Sabud chit which he knew to be false and gave it to Constable 817. In the chit it is mentioned that constable no 817 was not able to go in his station earlier as he had been suffering from fever. In his defence the constable said that he had given the chit by order of Station House officer. This however is signed by the constable himself, who is the Station writer and not by the Head constable. In view of this he is not bound to obey any such irregular order by the Head constable. I reduce constable 721 to 2000 of or giving a Sabud chit which he knew to be false to another station constable to the effect that the latter had delayed to return to his station for 4 days owing to an attack of fever.

Minute of 4th 424 H.C. to 721 Rajanah of D.T. Sengam Station A Complaint was preferred to this Head Constable on the 16th August by the Stone Contractor at Sengam that certain masons who had received advances from him had absconded with Government tools. Instead of registering this Complaint under Criminal breach of trust and instituting legal proceedings the Head Constable refused to entertain the Complaint and referred the Contractor to the Magistrate.
 The Constable did not even register the Complaint in the Crime register which he was induty bound to do even if he had erroneously considered the offence to be non Cognizable.
 The Constable admits his fault and pleads in defence that as 60 or 70 men had to be arrested and they had absconded to the different parts of the Country he thought that it would be a difficult case to deal with. He adds that as several similar cases had been disposed of by Sub Magistrate as breach of Contract cases, he thought that the present case might be treated in the same manner. I reduce 4th H.C. 721 Rajanah to 1st Constable for a period of 3 months for extreme apathy in having refused to entertain a Cognizable Complaint and to follow up the offenders.

minute of 4th Sep 47 721. Raghavulu of Bellare police force

This Head Constable at Sungan from which he has been lately transferred on account of his falling out with the Sub-magistrate there committed a series of gross irregularities which prove him to be quite unfit for any responsible position. A Constable 957 of Cuddapah District by name Basheerlu was returning from leave to his own District and arrived at Siddipet on the 4th August. He asked the Comaties there to supply him with food which they did. When he was on the point of going away a dispute arose as to the price that should be paid for each meal. From words the Comaties and Constable came to fistieuffs and Constable sustained some slight injuries - as Constable did not pay for his food the Comaties hid away his bundle of clothes in their houses. Head Constable 721 enquired into the case and instead of referring the Constable to the Magistrate's Court for redress, registered a case against the Comaties under Sections 379 and 323 I. P. C. and proceeded to charge them - Section 323 I. P. C. is as the Head Constable must have known a non-cognizable case - Further he must have known that a case of theft against the Comaties could not possibly be established. He acts from revengeful motives simply because the Comaties had thrashed this Constable - again on the 9th September the following irregularity of the Constable was brought to light. The Sungan Sub-magistrate had convicted and sentenced a hatcher named Chengishulu to imprisonment under Section 224 I. P. C. After passing sentence he ordered his person to be searched, when a Telugu letter written by this Head Constable was found with the prisoners. It was addressed to one Ramakatta Ramiah brother-in-law of the Head Constable who resides at Bellare. In the letter the Head Constable requested his relative to introduce the prisoners (i.e. prisoners) to Kullannarapu chenchu Ramiah, a clerk in the Special Dy. Magistrate's office, and get him to have the case transferred from the file of the Sengam Sub Magistrate. The letter was dated by the Head Constable 30. 8. 85. The Head Constable denies the authorship of the letter, but Inspector Syed Mahomed Cassim, who reads the reports of this Head Constable, daily and may therefore be regarded as an expert in this particular case, positively asserts that the letter is in the handwriting of Head Constable. Raghavulu and signed by him. The contents of the petition further go to show that it could not have been written by any one else. This Head Constable besides, being untrustworthy has been very careless in the performance of his duty. He has been repeatedly warned by Inspectors to submit A. forms (wandering gang) with his S. H. reports and yet he failed to send them with three of his reports dated 12th, 14th, 15th September. In his defence he states he did send them, thus giving the Inspectors the lie direct. As a matter of fact he did not send them. I reduce Lt. Col. H. L. Raghavulu to 1st Constable for untrustworthy conduct and unfitness for the post of Head Constable. He will be transferred to the Cuddah Station and not be put in charge of any Station.

- (2) Not patrolling the Kanny road on the night of 11. 7. 97 and falsely showing himself as a patrol in his duty roster thereby feeding that record.
- (3) Reported by proceeding Inspector who found no patrol Constable on the road. The delinquent is S.H. of 1st class and showed himself as a patrol (Duty in Roster) on night in question which means that he was on patrol duty from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. The proceeding Inspector was on the road which the delinquent should have been patrolling between 6 p.m. and 2 a.m.
- (4) The delinquent explains that he did not leave his station to patrol till 2 a.m. because he thought that prisoners became bright turn up. This is an absurd excuse. Prisons and prisoners are not escorted open at night and delinquent had no reason to suppose that any escort would pass through that night.

3. The District Magistrate some time ago issued very strict orders that in all cases of death by drowning or bodies were to be sent for Post-mortem examination unless the cases of death was absolutely certain. The Superintendent sent to a de-circulars which have been carefully explained to all men, stating that unless there is direct evidence (such as that of eye witnesses) to death bodies must invariably be sent for Post-mortem examination. In spite of these orders, there are constant failure to send bodies for Post-mortem examination. The relatives of the deceased usually object and it saves station house officers trouble and worry not would send them 4. In this case the delinquent admits not sending the body for examination. It was a case of drowning in a well. The Station house officer says that on the evening before the body was found some persons saw the deceased drinking at that particular well. This is not direct evidence.
