General Remarks The cause of the applicant's reduction and suspension on 15th November 1875 is for unsatisfactory work. It is for Government to decide whether the applicant should be allowed the benefit of (a) i.e. of counting the ^{superior} inferior portion towards pension on the superior scale and the inferior portion towards gratuity on the inferior scale and the inferior portion towards gratuity on the inferior scale. Pension and gratuity admissible under this rule has already been applied to. The Executive Engineer, Trichinopoly Division has been requested to expedite the finger prints of the applicant which, when received, may be sent. E. A. Deering Examiner P. W.
