I cannot give too high praise to my Sheristadar Mr Solomon Pereira. He is a faithful, efficient and honorable public servant. He does his work quietly and does it well. He is thoroughly trustworthy and worthy of trust. He is respected by the subordinates of the Court and by the practitioners in the Court. I have received from him the very greatest assistance during the time I have presided in the Court as Judge, and I have never found that he has misled me or concealed anything from me. Mr. Plumer has recommended ~~for~~ him for promotion as Moonsiff and so have I. He will make a good Moonsiff and will be a popular Moonsiff for he possesses that great virtue, patience, without which no judge of whatever degree can be popular. I can thoroughly recommend him to the confidence of my successors.
