March

A case of Robbery No. 392 was charged by the S. S. officer of Krishnaapuram Station which was said to have been committed on 10-2-84.

3 accused persons were charged, the first accused is supposed to have taken a cloth from the complainant and to have beaten him and the other two were with him. The cloth was said to have been recovered at once by 1st class constable no. 1255 and 1133.

An receipt of the first Report Supt. endorsed on the same that it was a false case as he suspected it to have been only a drunken quarrel.

The date of the offence was on a Shandy day of Krishnaapuram.

The complainant gave his evidence in a very suspicious manner, and in fact the whole story of the complainant and capture of the alleged robbers is very improbable. The complainant describes the offence as committed at a considerable distance from Krishna-puram, and the constables at the place.
The complainant further states the accused persons ran away at once, the constables say they heard of the offence from some Shandy people who came to the market, and immediately went to scene of crime, and arrested the accused with property.

The delay must have been considerable and the evidence certainly does not look as if the accused really tried to make

make off with the cloths.

Inspector Sukumadham Sahib was at Chittoor on the 14th and asked for permission to go to Bellare to prosecute this case. I told him it was only a drunken quarrel and ought not to have been charged and also directed him to request the Joint Magistrate to withdraw the case.

He attended the court, but never opened his mouth until the evidence had all been taken, where he told the court that no case had been committed and that it was only a drunken quarrel and that he had not come to conduct the prosecution but to endeavour to have the case withdrawn.

This was not at all but to make the case worse constable 835 of Krishnapuram Station who was also in court, why?

I cannot tell made a sign to the second prosecution witnesses when he was hesitating over the identification of one of the accused and caused him to alter his statement.

Again the first occurrence Report sent in spoke of the theft of 13 annas in cash, besides the cloths, but not a word was said about them in court.

The Inspector's conduct in allowing such a case to be sent up in the first place is perfectly disgraceful. Secondly his conduct in court after all the Sub^{ts} told him is very reprehensible, and looks as if he continued at getting the case committed if possible but finding it had utterly broken down tried to shield himself by making the statement he did. He has set a very bad example to his men and a note will be made in his Service Register against him.

The Ag S. H. Officer 1st class const. no. 810 Rangju Ram is a man of 20 years Service and has not a single default against his name.

He has been for several years a cashier Station writer, has passed S. H. Officers test and so has not the slightest excuse for sending up such a rotten case.

1st class constable no 1255 has 12 years Service and only 4 defaults and 1133 fourteen years Service and eleven defaults. They have no excuse being old Service men.

Third class const. no 855 Chendragadu has only 4 months Service and is quite a recruit.

The Inspector I consider is more to blame than the men. Taking into consideration 810's good conduct for 20 years I reduce him for six months to 2nd class and send him back as a Station writer.

1255 and 1133 who unduly got up the case I reduce permanently to 2nd class and 835 who is only a recruit and for whom every allowance I think ought to be made I fine 1 Rupee.
