Explanatory notes appended to the gratuity application of Ahdool Khadar.

1. House or Country - name of the applicant was not given in the Service Register. Country - name is now added as per applicants' statement enclosed.
2. Applicant's date of birth is 3rd March 1842 as per his Service Register. 31st March 1842 appears to have been given in the Annual Returns of 1888 and 1889 by oversight.
3. Applicant's name is spelt as Ahdool Khadar in the Service Register: but it is spelt differently in some of the Annual Returns, pay-bills and Acquittance Rolls: the word "Sahib" is also affixed to the name in some of them.
4. Absent without leave from 26th to 31st January 1876, and Suspension from 22nd to 31st January 1877. The Service Register and pay-bills do not specify the date from which he was absent or from which date he was suspended. The dates now given are according to the applicants' statement enclosed.

5. Suspension for 10 days in 1877: the order suspending the applicant is not forthcoming. He and his cotemporary, Naumai Roy Sahib, are unable to state for what misconduct he was then suspended.

6. Suspension for one month and degradation in 1853: from the Proceedings of the District Court no: 68 dated 25th December 1892, it appears that he was punished for having opened a stationery box without orders.

Proceedings of the District Court of North Arcot dated 25th December 1892.

Read letter No 354 dated the 24th instant from the District Munsiff of Arui reporting the misconduct of Server Abdool Khadar and recommending his suspension for one month.

Order

The evidence of the clerk Panchapakesa Das corroborated by his prompt report to the head clerk and the head clerk's statement that the peon admitted to him that he had opened the stationery box leave no doubt that the peon's denial is false. He could only have opened the box to take out its contents which he had no business to do. That fault is aggravated by his denial. He is therefore suspended for one month and placed at the bottom of the list of process servers. The District Munsiff will see this order attended to.
