This man came before me this morning 12th August /98. He had a peculiar look in his face & shifty eyes - when questioned as cause of his illness he said it was due to a certain person in Dehra Dun school of Forestry who persecuted him, he applied galvanic batteries to him, put twenty revolver shots into him & his wife, then brought them round again & persecution has been kept up by Agents up to the present day - & so on, he has the delusion of persecution well marked.

He saw a picture on the wall of the office he clasped his hands towards it & called it the likeness of his god - He is insane & utterly unfit for further service.

Subject:— Removal of the name of Acting Ranger C. M. Parthasarathy Naidu as medically unfit for further Service.

Reference:— Board's Proceedings No. (1378) Miscellaneous. dated 29th September 1896.

Sir,

I have the honor to refer to the case of Acting Ranger C. M. Parthasarathy Naidu who was certified unfit for further Service on the 1st September 1896 by the Civil Surgeon of Chingleput in

8

in the following terms:-

"This man has been under observation since May 1895. In April preceding while at Dehra Dun he was seized with maniacal symptoms which subsided somewhat after his removal to Chingleput. As the symptoms shewed signs of amelioration he was recommended and granted leave upto 29th December 1895. He seemed to have quite recovered and was sent back to duty. On joining however he was again attacked with the old symptoms, viz. delusions and incoherence. He is also said to be molesting passers-by and neighbours. His delusions are principally that he is being harassed by all his officials and that attempts are being made by every one to poison him. His leave of absence expires on the 31st August 96. and as he still suffers with the delusions above mentioned I am of opinion that he is unfit for further service as treatment does not seem to benefit him."

that

2. On the earnest application of his wife he was given as a last chance an extension of leave on medical certificate, without allowances, for one year. This year expired on the 1st October 1897, and if proof were wanting of the Acting Ranger's condition it is afforded, not only by the admission of his wife, but by his own letters and post cards to me, the last two of which I enclose as samples for information. It seems evident that the case is quite hopeless.

His wife has written asking for an extension of leave upto 5 years without pay under Sections 222 and 372 of the Civil Service Regulations but I think that his name should be removed from the lists. I am therefore removing his name, and shall forward his pension application.

OFFICE OF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS, N.C., 29th November 1897.

From

A.W. Peet Esquire
CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS,
NORTHERN CIRCLE.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF LAND REVENUE, MADRAS.

SIR,

In accordance with Boards Proceedings Forest No. 811 Routine dated 12th October 1897, I have the honor to submit herewith the Pension application of C. M. Parthasarathy Naidu, late Temporary Ranger for transmission to Government through the Accountant General.

2. From the medical certificate enclosed it will be seen that Parthasarathi Naidu was declared unfit for further service by the District Medical Officer Chingleput on 1st September 1896, but he was, as I already reported to the Board in my No. Rc. 661 dated 4th October 1897, given leave without allowances on the application of his wife for a further period of one year upto 30th September 1897

8
851

B.P. 811/12.10.97

as a last chance for restoring him to fitness for duty: It is evident from the enclosures sent to the Board with my report quoted above that Parthasarathy Naidu has not yet recovered from his insanity, and that his state of mind is as bad as it was before. I therefore think it unnecessary that he should be called upon now to produce another medical certificate to warrant his retirement.

3. The average emoluments were calculated on the pay of a last grade Ranger Viz. Rs 50/- Parthasarathy Naidu held the post of a Probationary Ranger 5th grade (Old scale) from 1st March 1890 to 30th June 1892; when, he was confirmed by Mr Hooper acting Conservator as a 1st grade Forester on Rs 40/- but permitted to continue to act in the very post of Ranger which he held before on probation, with the proviso that if he failed to pass the survey test at the next examination his acting appointment would cease (Please see copy of office order No 90 dated 14th October 1892 enclosed). It is not expressly stated in the order referred to above that the acting appointment given to Parthasarathy Naidu was probationary but to all intents and purposes it was a probationary post because Parthasarathy Naidu would have been confirmed in it if he had passed the Survey

quently when the question of extension of his probationary period came before me I thought that he was still on probation and granted the extension asked for (see my office order No 131 of 1892-93)

It may seem questionable whether in calculating the average emoluments the acting allowance paid to Parthasarathy Naidu from 1st July 1892 to 8th april 1895 can be taken into account with reference to article 530(i) of Civil Service Regulations and with reference to the ruling contained in Boards Proceedings Land Revenue No 345 dated 14th October 1897. I think it can be taken into account for the reasons explained above, and as the post he held was permanently vacant all the time and filled in otherwise only after he had gone on leave in April 1895.

4. Again Parthasarathy Naidu was appointed as a Temporary Ranger on Rs 50/- on his return from leave in December 1895 but he remained in the post only for a short time, viz from 31st December 1895 to 28th February 1896, and went on leave again from 1st March 1896. Here also I have taken the pay of the Temporary post in calculating the average emoluments, not only for the period referred to above but also for the period during which he was on leave with allowances viz 1st March 1896 to 30th September 1896 for the reason that he would have continued as a Temporary Ranger had he not gone on leave.

5. The Ranger's signature was not obtained in the last two pages of his service book, and it is useless to attempt now to obtain it as the Ranger in his present state of mind may not sign at all.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 661 dated the 25th of February 1898 I have the honour to refer you to the service history of C. M. Parthasarady Nayudu, late Dy Ranger of the Forest Department, detailed on the 2nd page of his pension application, from which it will be seen that prior to his transfer to the Forest school, Dehra Dun, in June '94, the applicant held the post of Forest Ranger 5th Grade, on probation, and drew pay at Rs 50 per mensem (and not pay at Rs 40 + acting allowance of Rs 10 as shown in the service history) from 1st July '92 to 12th June '94, and continued to draw the same rate of emoluments also for the period that was spent as student in that school viz from 29th June 1894 to 4th April 1895. It is not clear whether the applicant continued to retain lien ~~for~~ for the latter period on his probationary appointment or on his substantive appointment as Forester 1st grade on Rs 40. In the latter case he will be precluded from counting the acting or additional allowance

allowance of Rs10 towards pension. 147 As regards the former period, his emoluments may be taken at Rs50/- for the purpose of the calculation of his average emoluments for pension. On 1st. April 1896, he was on leave on Medical Certificate an his name appears to have been omitted from the establishment

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 1614 D/ 2d Inst and previous correspondence on the same subject, I have the honor to state that after a perusal of all the references in this case, I made a personal examination at his house of C. M. Parthasarathy Naidu and I am of opinion that he shows no signs of insanity at present, whatever his former condition may have been.

2. His case appears to hinge chiefly on family disputes and litigation. He states that his father-in-law has deprived him of all his property & that he has forcibly removed his wife from his custody. He is, consequently, living alone and is subjected to much inconvenience. He states that the petition forwarded with your letter under reference was not written by his wife but by the relatives with whom he has a quarrel.

3. I tried to interview the woman but her father flatly refused to let me question her either at the house or at the hospital. Consequently I am unable to get her evidence

4. Probably numerous lies are being told on both sides, but the matter appears to be one for departmental disposal as I see no medical grounds for certifying that Parthasarathy Naidu is unfit for further service.

To

MADRAS.

SIR,

For the disposal of pension papers of Deputy Ranger Parthasarathy Naidu declared unfit for further service by the District Surgeon of Chingleput Surgeon Major Nailer as per certificate forwarded to you with this Office R.C. No 1661 dated 4th October 1897 the Accountant General called for a further certificate which the District Surgeon Surgeon Major Marsden declares he is unable to grant for the reasons stated in the enclosed letter.

Mr Peet's former letter above referred to gave a very decided opinion that the man should not be re-employed, and from the history of the case it would appear to be inadvisable to do so without ~~without~~ more evidence of his restoration to sanity than is afforded by Dr Marsden's letter and I would suggest for the Board's consideration the expediency of a further examination of the man by a Medical Board if he can be got to appear before one.
