The humble application of Srivilliputtur Seshaiyengar, Retired amin of your honor's Court.

Most Honored Sir

I beg to submit that I have taken leave on several occasions and they were all granted on forfeiture of pay under Article 372 Civil Service Regulation, while I was entitled to other kinds of leave viz (~~[illegible]~~ ord. Privilege and private affairs leave on such occasions. Leave without pay is not reckoned as service and will be deducted from the total service while it is not the case with other kinds of leave enumerated above. The total period of leave on loss of pay comes to 19 months & odd. Further some deduction will have to be made in my qualifying service as it has begun 7 months after the age of 20 years under article 521 though I have served the Government for 30 years from August 1868 to August 1898.

3
873

My nett qualifying service comes to only 23 years and odd.

I therefore most humbly pray that your honor may be gracious[ly] pleased to recommend that the period of leave without pay may be treated as leave counting for pension and thus protect the applicant.

I beg to remain ~~Sir~~
Respectful Sir

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith the application for pension, as per list enclosed, on behalf of Srivilliputur Seshienger late 2d Class Amin of this Court. I have also submitted, for such consideration as the District Court may deem fit, an application of Seshiengar praying for condonation under Art: 465 (ii) of the Civil Service Regulations, of interruption of service of one year 7 months and 17 days during which he was absent on leave without allowances – in the circumstances therein stated will show that he has not had privilege leave granted to him during the period of his entire service. It would seem that he was entitled to privilege leave when leave on forfeiture of pay was granted to him and that the rule now insisted upon by the Accountant General that leave on forfeiture of pay should not be generally granted when the applicant is entitled to privilege leave, was not clearly observed then. If it had been observed, the leave of one year, 7 months and 17 days not counting for pension at present would have been privilege leave. In these circumstances, I beg to submit that the application of the amin for condonation is fair and reasonable.
