Letter

To the Secy to the Govt. of India,
Dept. of Finance and Commerce.
Sir,

I am directed to forward a memorial from P.S. Muthusawmi Mudali, late a note sorter, Paper Currency office, Madras, praying for either a half pension or for reinstatement in the service.
2. On attaining the age of 55 years the memorialist was transferred to the pension list, and a superannuation pension of Rs. 4 per mensem was granted to him by G. O. No. 219 dated 17-3-98 (copy enclosed) for his combined inferior and superior service of 31 years, 4 months and 23 days.

Thereupon appealed to this Govt. asking either for the grant of half pay pension or to be retained in service, but was informed that both

The Memorial does not seem liable to be withheld under the Govt. of India Petition Rules.

The petitioner was in the inferior service from 1865 to July 1895 and held the appointments of peon, attinder, muchi, book-binder and potdar. In July 1895 he was promoted to the Superior service as a note-sorter on Rs. 15/-.

His case is, as noted below, different from the four cases he refers to.

1. Streramulu Naidu was a shroff in the Accts.

Genl's office and his service was equal in status to that of the Revenue Shroff. He was allowed to remain in the service for many years under the impression that his service was pensionable on the superior scale.

He would have been granted a superior pension if he had retired before the receipt of the Govt. of India Resolution No. 2038 of 2nd May 1895, stating that the service of shroffs in departments other ^{than} the Revenue should not be treated as superior merely because they are "shroffs". In these circumstances he was specially recommended and granted a pension of half his pay.

the requests were inadmissible. He now appeals to the Govt. of India.

4.3. With regard to para 3 of the memorial, the Commissioner, Paper Currency, Madras, observes that in May last the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta, instructed him to send a remittance of 15 lakhs to Delhi and that a Potdar was required to accompany the remittance, and that as the memorialist was at the time daily frequenting the office in search of employment and not only volunteered but begged to be sent in charge of the remittance with the view of obtaining the daily allowance of 8 annas admissible for the duty under Article 652-1 of the Civil Account Code, he was sent in charge, in preference to engaging the services of an outsider as there was difficulty in sparing a permanent Potdar from the office.

5.4. I am to add that there is no analogy between the memorialist's case and ~~the cases~~ ^{in the opinion of Mr. K. S. G. L.} those quoted in his memorial to this Govt., and that there is nothing in the case to justify exceptional treatment.

H. E. the Governor in Council has therefore no recommendation to make on memorialist's behalf.

B 2. Nagasayama Naidu was an Attender on pay exceeding Rs 10 p.m. in the Chief Secretariat for 40 years. He was recommended for and given a special pension of Rs 8 p.m. in consideration of his long and faithful service of 40 years.

C 3. Nagalinga Mudali was a Muchi in the Military Secretariat on Rs 14 p.m. He was granted a special pension of Rs 7 p.m. in consideration of his long and faithful service of over 42 years.

D 4. Teagaraya Mudali was a Jallah on Rs 15 in the Govt. office for 46 years, and as his post was a responsible one owing to the holder having been entrusted with the duty of securing valuable records and other property he was recommended for and given a pension of Rs 7-8-0 p.m.

Moothusawmy Muddali, late a Note Sorter on Rs 15 in this office, to His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India, which the Petitioner has forwarded to me for transmission, in compliance with Endorsement from Government in the Pension Department, No 738 dated 28th September 1898.

2. Full particulars of his case have already been submitted to Government in my letter No 688 dated 27th May 1898, with which the original petition dated 4th April 1898, submitted by Petitioner to His Excellency The Governor in Council, was forwarded. A copy of that petition is also herein
