SUBJECT

Enquiring whether the rules for the record of finger prints of Govt. servants & pensioners apply also to applicants for gratuities.

I don't think it is necessary in the case of a gratuity wh. is a single payment. The individual must be known to many & there cannot be false personation when his identity is known.

Note

Please see the Under Secy's remark in the case disposed of in G.O. 606 13-8-98 (A).

21.11.98 Secy When is house, I submit in making this record in the case of a man who is to receive one single payment.

But an applicant for a gratuity may become some one else: & the finger print useful check on such fraud: & it gives his identity is known.
