Sir

Yr humble Petitioner after receiving the endorsement No 45-searched her papers that were sent to her nearly after her removal to Kellary, which Petitioner now encloses for your honorable Government's kind perusal.

The one of the 24th March 1884 was when Petitioner was away from Cuddalore her daughter examined the forha females, having seen them ere that, but it was rejected, saying that she was not authorized to do so, whereupon Petitioner appealed to the the Collector from Kellary, then Petitioner May -in was permitted to examine them in her absence

In conclusion Petitioner craves your honorable governments Kind Consideration and a favorable reply, & humbly begging to be pardon for her intrusion, God Bless your honorable governments

I have the honor to be

From this circumstance Petitioner then
- for considered himself as a permanent Government Servant, and therefore these repeated Petitions, to your honorable govern- ment, as all those that would help & sup- port her, are now resting in the Cemetery at Cuddalore, and her extreme necessity compelling her to intrude on your hono- rable governments valuable time & attention,

Petitioner does not expect a Pension, but should your honorable government be kindly pleased to give her Rs 2 for each year for the 25 years she has served under your honorable government, will be more than a Pension, now in her time of need & old age.

Your humble Petitioner for sev- eral years when sent for from Bellary, never open received training or better, altho she had to stay at Cuddalore for a month or two sometimes, but displayed her expenses from which she received,
