Minute recommending the reduction of 1st Grade Head Constable Dombooroo Patro No. 641 of Ramagiry Station to 2nd Class Constable for deliberately falsifying records—

On the 1st Instant the undersigned examined the men of Ramagiry Station; during the examination it became apparent that with the exception of No. 4 beat (meeting between Ramagiry and Udayagiry) the other beats, four in number, were very seldom patrolled and that the men were in the habit of doing pretty much what they liked in the Duty Roster, Beat Books and Village Roster for the Current month. Con: No 131 is shown as having gone on beat 8 or 9 times; on asking him he stated that he had been on beat duty only once, that on other days he had been employed on duty in the
60 Station – On the 10th Instant Constables No. 131 & 1364 are shown as having gone on No. 2 & 4 beats respectively; on asking No. 131 to name the villages he visited on that date, he at once named named certain villages on No. 3 beat; for lying in this manner he has been severely punished. Insp. Narainsing who was present in the Station on 1st. states that on the date here named no Constables were deputed for beat duty, they were all employed in cleaning arms &c. - Hd Cons. No 641 has no explanation to offer, but prays that his conduct may be overlooked -

Having deliberately falsified records in way he has done he has forfeited all claim to his present position; though promoted only in August last to Hd grade he has proved to be a man in whom no confidence whatever can be placed; his reduction to the lowest rank in the Force is recommended -
