1st Grade Head Constable No 251. K. Lutchman Row.

This Head Constable is Station House officer of Rayadrug Cusba: Since 3rd C. Inspector Mr. Reynolds took charge of the Division in the end of October last he has shown a disposition to be insubordinate to him. On the 18th November he was awarded a Black mark for indirectly enquiring into an abortion case after Inspector had told him on the previous day that he should do nothing in it without orders from the Magistrate. Again on the 16th January 1888 he was awarded a Black mark for availing himself of leave without informing the Inspector and obtaining a pass-port from him. The present charges against him are (1st) Direct disobedience of orders in not occupying a hut in the Lines. The Inspector reported in his Diary of the 21st November 1887 that Head Constable was not living in the Lines and the Superintendent directed that he should be ordered to do so at once which Inspector reported on the 18th December had been communicated to him. Head Constable however never occupied a hut.

(2) That on the 3rd Instant one Kondappa came to the Inspector and complained against Paragappa and others of house trespass and assault. Head Constable being present at the time Inspector ordered him to reduce Kondappa's complaint to writing and take necessary action. Head Constable did not do this at all, but registered only the count of Complaint of Parvappa against Kondappa. His conduct in this respect is suspicious: Head Constable submitted a Petition on the 7th February 1888 to the Superintendent complaining of the Black marks above alluded to as being grievances and making insinuations that Inspector had been improperly influenced against him, which are mere conjectures on his part. The petition is a most improper one.

Defence,

The Superintendent has held personal enquiry at Rayadrug (1) Head Constable pleads that Inspector never gave him any order to live in the Lines. This is not to be believed. Inspector noted the fact of his having done so on his diary and there is no reason to doubt his word more - over house-rent was recovered for 2 months from Head Constable about which he made no remonstrance.

(2) Head Constable again pleads that Inspector gave him no order to reduce Kondappa's complaint to writing and take action, he denies having seen Kandappa at all on the day in question. There is no reason to doubt Inspector's statement, he made a report of what had happened on the 4th. Kandappa undoubtedly came to complain on the 3rd - and even if Inspector had not given the order to Head Constable he would surely have presented himself before Head Constable to have his case taken up. Kandappa says that Head Constable told him he would spoil his case if he gave a written complaint.

Superintendent of Police

2nd Grade Head Constable No 261 K. Letchman Row.

Rayadrug division Inspector Saiyid Mir Sahib reported this Head Constable for having on the 7th June been insolent to him when he asked for explanation of his conduct on certain points saying that he (Inspector) acted very foolishly on the advice of foolish persons and that he would not give any explanation though it was ordered by the Superintendent: the Head Constable was under the influence of liquor at the time. It is to be noted here that Inspector was quite right in asking for the explanations
He actually had the Superintendent's order to do so on one point.
Head Constable apparently anticipating the above report being made against him sent direct to the Superintendent a petition complaining that the Inspector had asked him for his explanation without cause and that he had ~~[illegible]~~ declined to give it unless he was ordered in writing. he asserted that the Inspector had disgraced him and threatened to beat him with his slipper: the petition went on to state that Hd Constables had (by his own shewing) spoken very disrespectfully to Inspector about a man in his employment.
The Superintendent has held personal enquiry: Inspector's
He sees no reason to doubt the correctness.
report which is corroborated to a great extent by Head Constables own petition. The Supt: attaches no importance to the assertions in the petition that Inspector threatened to assault Head Constable; as already remarked, it was sent probably as a kind of counter charge to meet the report which he knew would be made of his own misconduct. The Petition is a very improper one, and contains several frivolous assertions against Inspector on matters which were no affairs of the Head Constable.
Head Constable was fined in February last for disobedience and insubordinate conduct to the late

(1) 1st G. H Cons: No 251 Lutchmon Row of Kanaikul station.

(2) One months delay in furnishing information called for by the Inspector

(3) In his station House report for 15. 9. 98 the station House officer reported the return from Jail of certain two Lumbadies convicted for robbery. As they belonged to a criminal gang, the Inspector on the 17 idem ordered the station House officer to furnish him with all the information necessary regarding the Lumbadies in order to enable him to recommend their being registered as K. D's. In reply to the Inspr's remark (which was sent to the S. H. O on 22. 9. 98) the S. H. officer replied on 29. 9. 98 that report would follow. As this was a shirking reply the Inspector again called on him on 1. 10. 98 to submit the information called for at once. On 20. 10. 98 (received by Inspr on 23-10-98) the S. H officer only sent information regarding the Lumbadies required in pages 2 of the K. D. Register. On this the Inspector called for particulars of conviction and history of the convicts. This information he got at Kanaikul on 27. 10. 98.

(4) In defence the S. H. officer says he gave the remarked S. H. Report (of 15. 9. 98) to 1 C C No 325 (illiterate) on 9. 10. 98 when proceeding to Bellary & No 325 gave it to Cons: No 400 who was pro tem in charge & that No 400 gave back the report report to the S. H. officer on his return from Bellary on 14. 10. 98. On 20. 10. 98 the S. H officer went to the Lumbady gang in question and made enquiries called for which information he sent together with his S. H Reports for 19" 20" & 21. 10. 98.

The evidence against the S. H officer consists in the S. H. Reports for 15. 9. 98 & 20. 10. 98 with reference to the latter the Inspector states that he has twice called upon the S. H officer for explanation for the delay & the above explanation was furnished by the S. H officer on a call from the Inspector on the S. H Report for 20. 10. 98.

Remarks. The S. H officer avoids explanation for delay till 9. 10. 98 & between 14. 10 98 to 20. 10. 98 From his defaulters he appears to be extremely lazy and quite incorrigible He has been given every chance to reform as he was liable for reduction on infliction of the last B. M awarded He must now be reduced

(4) Defence. In reply to Inspectors query sent through D. Sub Inspr. the Station House officer says that he has no note book &c to enable him to form a reply. He requests reference to papers in Head Qr. office and to personally represent his case to the Supt.

Remarks. I consider the defence the most unsatisfactory without reference to records he should be in a position to say whether such a report on 14th night had or had not been received by him. His note book (left behind in Kanaikal) or his Station House report of 14 or 15th Ulto: give no information to affirm or negative the allegation & he would not naturally commit to his record a suicidal blunder was made to him) on the night in question as alleged by them & that the Station H officer took no action. He has made no note of the circumstance in his Station House report for the 14th or 15th idem nor ~~not~~ has he mentioned it in his note book. In his explanation his attempt to procrastinate and gain time by pretending that a reference to the office records and a personal hearing by the Dt. Supt of Police both for charges (a) & (4) cannot be tolerated and only adds to the gravity of his offence

3rd. Grade Head Constable No. 413
K. Lutchman Row.

About 12th February a gang strong in numbers and evidently of a very bad description halted at the 3rd mile from Bellary on the Herrihall road when this Head Constable was Casba H.C.

He admits that he knew of the gang being there and visited it on the 19th evening. That nevertheless he failed to say a word to the Town Police about it until midday of the 20th when the Town Police had already got full information regarding it through another source.

He went to Head Con: Shunker Row 1st Grade Head Con: of the town there to ascertain if it was the case that the gang had jewelry to dispose of & Head Constable Shunker Row told him that it was the case and that he had been out in disguise and have offered jewels for sale. This Head Cons was requested to keep an eye on the gang as Shunker Row had hopes next day of catching them by pretending to buy this jewelry and he says he asked this Head Constable to accompany him in disguise.

Head Constable Lutchman Row states that he did not go there till 8 O'clock hours after when every moment was of consequence, when he found that the gang had left two hours before.

He says that the constables at the watch but told him that two Head Constables of the Town had driven away the gang.

This was on the 20th He states that this gang spoke Tamil chiefly which was proof to any body that they were from parts foreign to Bellary – he states that he told Head Cons. Shenker Row, that he heard then that the gang had been driven away by Head Cons of the Town.

That this is a deliberate falsehood his telling Mr Short on the 4th March that he did not know and had not heard who had driven off the gang proves this is repeated also in a statement in writing made by him on the 11th March. He admits that he never reported the Ghant Constables whom he had told to watch the gang & send him information if it moved for their neglect when ~~the~~ he found on 20th that the gang had left two hours before & no ~~instruction~~ intimation had been sent nor did he take a single step towards following up the gang.

The Superintendent questioned certain members of this gang in jail for two docoities as to why they left when they did.

They said that a sergeant on horse back ordered them to move on which they did. Now Head Constable Lutchman Row is the only Head Constable who has a horse and there is every reason to believe that influenced by a most improper feeling of jealousy he sent off this gang to disappoint Head Constable Shenker Row who has with the other Town Police experienced great difficulties owing to the want of assistance by information of the arrival of such gangs which has lately been with held by the Town Police.

The effect at any rate of this gang 'moving on' was soon felt on 21st; they halted outside the Cavalry lines and on 22nd early morning were off to Tomili of Compley range.

While this gang was outside Bellary unknown of and unwatched – several burglaries were effected by breaking the walls of houses in a manner unknown in the ~~animals~~ annals of Bellary Town were burglaries are by the roof invariably and houses which looked likely were tried in each case

Early on 22nd morning two burglaries in Cavalry lines committed in a most desperate manner occured. The burglaries were most markedly determined it may be said for when interfered with on 22nd afternoon at Tomili two docoities were committed and 6 dumbadies a class generally unmolested as being much more than their neighbours who are in fear of them were robbed & they and the Police on a second occasion were roughly handled.

While this gang was outside Bellary they offered to Head Constable Shenker Row who was in disguise as a Sahowcar to beat off the Ghant Constable.

The members of the gang ~~of the gang~~ in jail admitted to Superintendent that after being driven off they went to the back of Cavalry lines & thence to Tomili.

There can therefore be no question that this Head Constable is responsible by his neglect at least even if he did not drive them off which is as certain as can be for the mischief the gang did afterwards.

Defence

This Head Constable when called on by Superintendent in person to explain his most grossly-

(4) He said he did not report the existence of the gang outside Bellary on 19th to Town Police because he had head-ache that he did not go at once on 20th when told by Head Cons: Shenker Row to watch the gang though informed of their suspicious character till night because he had a tree theft (a noncognizable matter to enquire into that when he went out he did not take a Cons. to place on the gang because he meant to go out first & if they were still there and then to return and fetch a Constable, take in fact a 12 miles ~~watch~~ walk at dead of night unnecessarily

He first said that he informed Inspector Elliot on his return when finding the gang gone of the Ghaut Constables neglect then when he formed this position untenable said that he did not see Elliot & report this whim.

What further bears out the theory that this Head constable drove off this gang whose presence he had failed to report is the fact that he abused Head Constable Shenker Row's informant for telling Head Constable Lutchman Row and not him about the gang.

Finally he did not tell 23rd send word of the move of this gang to Kudthini in fact it is most questionable if he sent ~~[illegible]~~ then as his station House report to Inspector reporting that he had done so is dated 23rd and did not reach Inspector at Bellary till 27th.

He tried to make Superintendent believe that he wrote at once or next day to Kudthini about this on perusing was found ... a gang coming this way only reached to-day gang has come

Probably the truth is that hearing that this gang had gone on committing crimes he wished to have it believed that he had intimated its movements.

For his gross neglect he deserves reduction to 1st Class Constable but the Superintendent considering the apathy of the taking Inspector Elliot in this matter and the spirit of opposition which of ~~lake~~ late the Cusba Police has been encouraged to shew to the Town Police instead of assisting them makes some allowance for this Head constable who under proper supervision always worked well reduced to 4 Grade Head Constable from 19th March /74
