Minute reducing 1st class Constable to 525 and amount 2nd class Constable from 8-6-76.

It is most disgraceful that in this House breaking case when sent to search the house of Gungirori one of the men suspected and wholly property would ~~undoubtedly~~ undoubtedly have been recovered, ~~but~~ he allowed his movements to be made known to Gungirori's father and thereby the man went off with the property and he refused to search the man's house on false pretences, there is no doubt that this man did recover property which he received as a bribe and thus hushed up the case. There is not quite sufficient evidence to prosecute him but there is no moral doubt of his guilt in the matter.

He is only a recruit of 4 years standing and may have been liddaway by Const 312 but at the same time know better our example must be made of him and 312 and he is accordingly reduced to 2nd class Constable.

false S. H. Report.
(b) Against Const. no. 525 - Signing the above false S. H. Report when in Temporary Charge of the Station.
& (C) Against Teliary 140 - Carrying the above place when told to do so by 743.

3. The Station House Report of Vannapalle for 18.11.97 states that Const. 931 who went on No. 2 High Road Beat on 18.11.97 reported that while he was waiting at the meeting place at Mandimandalam, Cons. 13 of Gopnathapalle and Teliary no. 140 met him with beat book of Pudlimuri, that on looking into the Above

Above heat book, it was found Const. 67's numbers had been entered for that day's heat, that on questioning the Taliary, he said that Const.
743 sent the heat book asking him to take it to the meeting place for Const. 67 who has been deputized for it, that Const. 931 thereupon had the statement of Taliary 140 entered in the heat book by Const. 13 and took 13's signature in it, and also affixing his own, produced it before the Station House Officer of Vampalle without returning it to the Taliary who brought it.

The Police Inspector of P. Division in his Memo no. 40 dated 18-11-97 brought the above report of the Vampalle heat Constable to 931 to the notice of Ag. Inspector Raghunatha Iyer then in charge of Kamalapuram Division and informed him that this was the way in which the Peadliamari Constables performed their heats.

The Station House Report of Cogn.
Makalapuram for 18-11-97 fully bears out the above report of Const. 931 of Vampalle Station. Ag. Inspector Raghunatha Iyer in his diary for 22-11-97 reports all the above at full length and states that he quite "believes" the report of Const. 931 & 13 of Vampalle & "Gajmalakapuram" which is that Taliary 140 had told them that Const. 743 asked the Taliary to take the heat book to the meeting place and get the signature of the opposite station heat Const. for Const. 67.

I show all the above, it is quite clear that Taliary 140 is the man ~~is the man~~ that carried the heat book to the meeting place and got the signature of the opposite station that he told the meeting Constables 931 & 13 that Const. 743 sent it to him with instructions to take it to the meeting place and get signatures for Const. no.
67. There is no reason whatever to doubt the genuineness of 931 & 13's reports, as they have immediately on their return to their respective stations reported as above to their respective Station House officers and their reports have been promptly reported in the same day's Station House reports.

In a statement dated 27-11-98 taken by the Ag. Inspector Raghunatha Iyer more than a week after all this had occurred, Teliang is said to have stated that const. 67 gave him the beat book to carry to the meeting place and get signatures, but the Ag. Inspector failed to question the Teliang then as to why he told the beat constables at the meeting place that Const. 743 was the man that sent him. This was a material point but it looks strange that it did not strike the Ag. Inspector that he should question the Teliang about it. The District Superintendent of Police was therefore under the necessity to make a further reference on this point and as was expected, the Teliang admits now before Mr. Baloney what all he is said to have stated before the meeting constables viz that Const. 743 had sent the beat book to him with instructions to carry it on behalf of Constable 67, and he further states that what is contained in his previous statement dated 27-11-97 is all false & that Constable Palliah (743) advised him to give that false statement. This

This is undoubtedly true. The so called statement of the Teliang dated 27-11-98 is utterly worthless as it was tacitly accepted by the Ag. Inspector with any question although it conflicted materially with his own report contained in his diary for 22-11-97, for which he is very much to blame. The Teliang is an ignorant rascal and he would have spoken everything right out if he was properly questioned about it at the time. On the other hand, there is no reason to distrust the Teliang's present statement before Mr. Baloney nor his original statement as contained in the above Station House Report. That Const. 743 sent the beat book to the meeting place with 67's no. entered in it, there can be no doubt. This conclusion is only quite consistent with and is completely supported by the conduct of Const. 743 when he wrote the Station House Report.

Report of Preliminary for 18-11-97 in his own hand. He was station writer that day and told off the beats himself. Yet in this P.H. Reports written on 20-11-97 when all that took place at the beat meeting place had become known to every body this very Constable 763 writes a most absurd story in his own hand, that Constable 67 went on No. 5 beat and that Jaliary no. 134 came to station and abstracted the beat book of No. I beat - and gave it to Gaymakhalapalle Constable 13. He does not say a word therein about his having defused Constable 67 on beat No. I and his having gone on a different beat viz No. 5 instead. All of which however he stated only 7 days after when the Mg. Inspector took his statement on 27-11-97. In this statement, he states that all that is contained in the Station House Report of Preliminary for 18-11-97, is false, that he (763) defused no 67 on No. I Beat that he himself wrote 67's no. in that beat book and gave it to him, that he never appointed 67 on no. 5 beat, nor gave him no. 5 beat beat book & that he wrote this false S.H. Report under the direction of Const. 67 and 525. He must indeed be extremely corrupt to prepare a false official report knowingly whether it be at the dictation of Const. 67 & 525 or otherwise especially when it was known to himself, but the fact remains that he did so, and his statement of 27-11-97 clearly shows serves for an admission that he was in league with the other two Constables of the station viz 67 & 525. Undoubtedly Const. 67 & 525 dictated, 763 wrote up, & 525 signed the Station House Report of Preliminary for 18-11-97, their object in writing up all this false and absurd story in that report was apparently to save Const. 67 from being detected and punished and in doing so, they attempted at the very cowardly plan of making a victim of Jaliary no. 134. for it never occurs to have struck them what motive the Jaliary could possibly have had, in stealing the beat book from the Station, and carrying it to Jaliary No. 140 and making him him get meeting signatures unless for the sake of one of his masters (the Station Consts.) either at the instance of Constable 67 or 743 and with or without the knowledge of 525.

Whether Const. 67 was really to go off on No. I beat and he neglected to go, it is not possible to decide upon the evidence before the under signed. He stoutly denies having been to go off on No. I beat and says he was sent on to 5 beat which he has performed. The S. & Reports in <sup>the</sup> hand of Const. 743 and signed by 525 completely supports Constable 67's assertion. Any how it is beyond all doubt that these 3 Constables were in league & were accustomed to help each other in their mal-practice of getting beat signatures through the Agency of Daimah Zaliaris and thus save themselves and probably also their other co-constables of the Station from the trouble of going on beat beat duty. It is quite probable that in the present instance, Const. 743 in order to oblige his friend, Const. 67 undertook to send the beat book with the latter's no: entered in it by Zaliary 134 or some body else and that the latter carried it on to the next Daimah Zaliary 110 and by him sent it on to the meeting place for getting signatures. Of these things, Const. 67 may or may not have been aware. Then when they came to know that the Vampalle beat Constable snatched away the beat book from Zaliary 110, the three Constables conspired and tried to make it appear that Const. 67 was detached on a different beat that day and that the beat book No. I was stolen away from the Station by Zaliary 134 at the instance of Const. 13 of Gynmakalapalle str. as though Constable 13 was at enmity with Const. 67 and in order to bring him into trouble, Const. 13 managed to get beat book No. I by Zaliary No. 134 and handed it up to the Vampalle Constable &c. This must have been their object object in writing that Stuffed story in the Pembury S. H. Report of 18th. Then when the Ag. Inspector went to enquire on 27-11-97 Constables 525 & 743 probably finding it difficult to explain how an illiterate Tally 134 managed to abstract Beat book no. I in particular or how he managed to get the no. of const 67 entered in it in the hand writing of 743, - turned round and did not want to be responsible for what they had done in the interests of their colleague. Const 67 and so left him to his own fate. They have got the Tally to support what they have said before the Ag. Inspector on 27-11-97 viz that Const.

67 gave him the no. I beat book and asked him to go and get signatures. In fact Tally no. 140 now plainly confess before Inspector Mr Baloney that what he stated on 27th November is false and that he was advised by Const.

743, that 67 did not give him the beat book and that 734 sent it to him.
4. Defence — Const. 743 & 525 — And Tally 140 plead guilty to the charges framed against them as above. As above noticed Const. 743 states that he wrote up the Pembury S. H. Report of 18th November knowing it to be false, but did so under the dictation of Consts 67 & 525. Const. 525 states that he signed that false report but when he signed it, he did not know what it contained as he is illiterate.
Tally no. 140 says that he carried the beat book to the meeting place because he had orders to do so from Const. 743.
Remarks. All these 3 men cannot be let off scot free. Const. 525's excuse that he is illiterate and only signed what had been prepared by Const. 743 at the dictation of Const. 67, cannot be Admitted

Admitted. It was his bounden duty to know that he is sending up an important official report and must see and be responsible for all that it contains. Const. 743 has no excuse whatever for knowingly preparing a false report though as he says, he did so at the dictation of Const. 67.

It is a great pity that there is not sufficient reliable evidence against Const. 67 who was no doubt in league with the other two constables, but all the primary records viz the Station House Reports of Vamfole & Gaymakalapally of 18.11.97 are in his favour. The other two constables in trying to save Constable 67 have spoiled all evidence that may have otherwise existed against him or they themselves allowed the Constable to remain at home and sent the best book to Jaliary No. 140.

Jaliary No. 140's excuse is that he was ordered by Constable 743. In his subordinate position in relation to the constables, he cannot be expected to disobey the latter's orders without some risk to himself, and this is the only mitigating circumstance in his favour.

5. Punishments - 2nd class Constable

No. 743 is suspended for 6 weeks.

1st class Constable No. 525 is reduced to 2nd class Constable for 6 months.

Jaliary No. 140 Venkatasu is dismissed.

6. Nil

7. A delay of two months in the disposal of this case was inevitable owing to the very complicated nature of the case which was rendered more so by the most hasty and clumsy middle made.

Made of it by Ag. Suspect Raghunatha Lyer and of which, I have taken notice in a separate proceedings, and on account of which further reference to the Divisional Suspects were necessary.
