May I venture back for a reconsideration of the 11th alteration of para 2 of the Draft Order. The working of the para, which has been in force for years, follows art. 514(b) of the C.S.R. & I think it would be unsafe to differentiate cases in the S.O. as we are not sure of the result & we lead to Defaulter Order No 321.

1. 2nd class constable No. 47, Thiruvaiyambur, Madurai Taluk Station, C. Division.
2. (1) Absence and striking beat duty on 18 June 1897. (2) Absence on 20 June 1897. (3) Absence from school on 24 June 1897. (4) Failing to clean his belt on 24 June 1897 as ordered.

3 & 4. On the 18 June 1897, this constable was deputed on the Kallanganur beat. Constable No. 204, turned up at the Taluk Station and on being questioned as to why he had come through, it was ascertained he had not met 47. About 3 P.M., 47, having heard he had been caught, came to the station saying he had not gone on beat as he had been taken suddenly ill. He had made a remark to that effect in his beat book. Apart from this remark, he produces no evidence in support of his plea nor did he apply to be sent to hospital.

After throwing his beat book on the station table, he went away and was was not seen for the rest of the day.

On the 20 of June, this constable only turned up at Station at 8.45 am. He gave as an excuse that he had overslept. He was then told to clean his belt. He commenced to do so but after a time, he left the Station and was not seen again the whole of that day.

He states that he was not absent and has been reported falsely by the Station House Officer through enmity. Inspector states he was at the Station till 3.30 pm, and the constable was not there. The constable further states that while he was cleaning his belt, the Inspector told him to go and fetch his service book which he did. The Inspector states this is quite false.

On the 24th Constables Nos 1195, 965, 492 & 746 prove conclusively that this constable was absent from school. The constable denies this. On the same date, this constable was given bronks and told to clean his belt. He did not do so. Both the Deputy Inspector General.

and Superintendent who saw his belt on the 26th prove that his belt had not been cleared for at least a week.

The constable states his belt is older belts than his were produced at inspection and passed muster.

This man is a dull and lazy fellow. The Deputy Inspector General noticed his bad demeanour and general appearance at his inspection and warned him that he would be very severely dealt with if he did not turn over a new leaf.

A charge of having been slovenly dressed at Deputy Inspector General's inspection might be added but in consideration of the severe punishment I am going to inflict upon him, I consider it necessary to do so.

5. See No 47 is awarded one B.M. and suspended for 10 days from 16th July 1897 for a series of offences which are given in para 2, committed by him within the period of one week.

6. By Superintendent and from 16th to 25th July 1897.

7. Enquiries commenced 20 June 1897
Enquiries ended 1 July 1897.
